If statistics are of any value, an annual return of 6% for thirty years is considerably above the average rate that would prevail during such a period, and we therefore urge the placing of funds at this time in long-term, amply secured bonds, yielding 6% or thereabout. We recommend the following well-secured issue and invite inquiry:

$600,000 SANTA BARBARA GAS & ELECTRIC CO.

(Santa Barbara, California)

First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds

Dated July 1st, 1911.

Due July 1st. 1941

Denominations $1,000, $500 and $100. Bonds optional at 105 and accrued interest on any interest date.

These bonds run thirty years and constitute a valid first lien on all the property of the company, whose physical valuation has been appraised conservatively at considerably more than the bonded debt.

The company serves the entire city of Santa Barbara and its suburbs, including Montecito and Miramar-a wealthy population and one that is enjoying a very large growth on account of the beauty of location, its accessibility and its climate.

The property is well managed, and the net earnings are considerably more than twice the amount necessary to pay the interest charges on all outstanding obligations. The Company operates directly under the provisions of the Constitution of the State of California, which gives to companies of this nature adequate rights without any time limitation for the conduct of

Under the terms of the trust deed the Company must make annual cash payments to the trustee, beginning in 1913, equal to 1% of the par value of the outstanding bonds, to be applied exclusively to the redemption of these bonds. In addition to this, another 1% must be paid to the trustee to be used to reimburse the Company for expenditures on account of permanent extensions and additions.

Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000 may be registered as to principal only. Registered bonds in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $50,000. Coupon and registered bonds interchangeable.

Application will be made to list these bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

From the letter of M. H. Smith, President of Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company (copies of which can be obtained at the offices of the undersigned), we summarize the following:

The bonds in question, besides being the direct obligation of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, are secured by a mortgage on its entire main line between Cincinnati and Atlanta. ## To Yield Over 6.85%

Attention is called to a letter of Julius Kayser, President of the Company (copies of which may be obtained from the undersigned), which he has summarized as follows:

The Company is the largest manufacturer of silk gloves in the world; the business was established in 1880.

Officials and managers are purchasing $500,000 first preferred stock, and retain the entire issue of second preferred, in addition to their interest in the common stock.

Net earnings of the business for five years and four months ended December 31, 1910, averaged \$835,020 per annum, or about FOUR TIMES the first preferred dividend requirements, and for year ended December 31, 1910, were \$714,925, or about  $3\frac{1}{2}$  TIMES these requirements. Bookings for first four months of current year increased nearly 20% over same period in 1910.

At least $200,000 per annum must be reserved out of profits, of which not less than $150,000 is to be used in the purchase or redemption of first preferred stock up to 120, and the remainder must be carried to a "special surplus account," for the benefit of the first preferred stock, as provided in the certificate of incorporation, which "special surplus account" may also be used in such purchase or redemption.

Tangible assets in the business in excess of current liabilities as of December 31, 1910, aggregated $3,814,905. Including profits since that date, and justified by suitable guaranties, the accountants are of the opinion that net tangible assets as of May 1, 1911, would be in excess of $4,000,000.

Stability and growth of the business are demonstrated by steadily increasing sales, the output of gloves, &c., having increased over 50% in the last five years.

Application will be made to list this first preferred stock on the New York Stock Exchange.

Legality of proceedings approved by our counsel, Messrs. Cravath, Henderson & de Gersdorff, New York, and by Charles J. Hardy, Esq., New York, counsel for the Company. Accounts audited by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., chartered accountants.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

Faith in the teachings and influence of our great educational institutions is measurably strengthened by such utterances as those to which President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University, gave expression on Wednesday of this week in addressing the 1911 graduating class. Amid the nauseating political talk of the day and the puerile and puny attempts being made in our legislative halls-and particularly at the so-called "investigations" now being conducted at Washington-to discredit recognized leaders in the financial and industrial world, among whom, of course, J. P. Morgan stands at the topmost pinnacle, President Butler's well-phrased remarks dealing with current weaknesses and fallacies ring out with a tone so clear and true that it seems certain they must find a lasting response in intelligent public sentiment.

President Butler speaks of this as the "age of irrationalism." There is something fine and telling about such phrases as "argument by epithet," "torrent of talk," "impertinent self-confidence," "vulgar lack of respect for what has been," and "demagogues political, demagogues literary and demagogues religious," as a characterization of the tendencies and failings of the times. It is hard to deny the assertion that "we have confounded novelty with originality and change with development, and that, like the ancient Athenians, we spend our time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing."

President Butler is apt, too, in his suggestion that in our disregard of the teachings of history and experience, of the endeavors of the long line of generations that have preceded us, we are calling in question the doctrine of evolution. Says he: "If there is any one thing which that doctrine teaches more clearly and more insistently than another, it is that all true development and progress are out of, and because of, what has gone before, and that they are to preserve, not to destroy, those structures, habits, tendencies and accomplishments which have shown themselves physically or morally fit—that is, suitable or worthy."

How true all this is. "To preserve, not to destroy"that is the object of all law and of all government. How it chimes, too, with the utterances of the United States Supreme Court. Chief Justice White, in the Standard Oil case, gave expression to precisely the same view in construing the Sherman anti-trust law, when he asserted that "one of the fundamental purposes of the statute is to protect, not to destroy, rights of property." Indeed, what President Butler says in the above-quoted statement is so axiomatic that it carries instant conviction with it. And yet, how far we are from giving heed to it. When the demagogue and the charlatan and the quack doctors—"political, literary or [religious"—appear with their plausible wares, do we not give ear to their inane vaporings and stand ready to receive their glib assertions of having found a remedy for all the ills that have been afflicting mankind since the world began? Who can gainsay President Butler when he declares that Whatever else this age may be, it certainly is the age of the crowd and of the demagogue. The crowd with its well-marked mental and moral peculiarities is everywhere in evidence; and demagogues political, demagogues literary and demagogues religious din our ears with hungry cries. A torrent of talk is abroad in the land. The crowd just now, the world over, sways from right to left in policy, in belief and in action, and cries out with wild enthusiasm to-day for the demagogue—political, literary or religious—that it tramples under foot to-morrow. The art of being a demagogue appears to be easy and quick to learn, and the rewards of the successful practice of the art have strange fascination for minds and characters that one would like to think in all respects worthy. But we are under no obligation either to run with the crowd or to follow every demagogue.

Perhaps what is here said appeals to us with more force on the present occasion, inasmuch as Woodrow Wilson, the late head of Princeton University, from whom so much was expected when he entered the political arena as Governor of New Jersey, has so sorely disappointed expectations now that he is filled with ambitions for the Presidency. To be sure, no one would imagine for a moment that a man of the high character and superior attainments of Dr. Wilson would deliberately yield up his convictions, but it is undoubtedly true, as said by the "New York Times" in discussing President Butler's address, that "political ambition leads men into the temptation to throw overboard their own enlightened beliefs and to take on a cargo of these raw products of thoughtless minds. In the hope of political success they betray their better selves." The initiative, the referendum and the recall, what else are they but stepping-stones towards abandonment of representative government? And why do we tolerate reckless abuse of those who have managed to accumulate wealth, even when acquired by honorable means? Must we not admit the truth of what the "Times" says, namely that "the people are being taught to believe that pretty much all wealth is culpable, and small tradesmen who have for years cheated their customers by false weights or by the sale of adulterated commodities roar out their applause of some barrel-head orator who denounces the predatory rich and the soulless corporations." It was time that Dr. Butler brought the community back to a realizing sense of how irrational all this is.

Doubtless the country sooner or later will get a respite from radical political and economic doctrines, with which it has so long been surfeited, if for no other reason than that the public will tire of them, but for the present the politicians are still at work in various directions, attempting to gain capital for themselves by undermining the fabric of trade and business. In the name of reform they are, by most inisidious methods, making assaults on the very foundations of society. Obviously, such a state of things does not tend to bring business revival any nearer. While a Congressional committee is investigating the United States Steel Corporation, ostensibly in the public interest (and incidentally revamping some old facts that are in the highest decree creditable to him who conceived this, the world's greatest industrial undertaking), the steel business itself, and the iron business with it, continues in a state of profound depression. And why? Because Congress last year amended the Inter-State Commerce Law in such a way as to completely cripple, for the time being, the railroad industry, upon which the iron and steel industry is so dependent for its activity and prosperity. According to the "Iron Age" of this city, iron production is aga n rapidly declining, the output for the month of May having been only 1,893,456 tons, against 2,065,-086 tons in April and 2,171,111 tons in March. The daily rate of production, which had risen from 56,752 tons in January to 70,036 in March, in May got down again to 61,079 tons. Only a very small crumb of encouragement can be derived from the statement of the "Age" that the steel bar trade shows some improvement as a result of the recent reduction in prices, for these lower prices obviously mean diminished profits. and may ultimately lead to reductions in wages.

In the copper trade, fortunately, the statistics seem to afford some indications of a possible improvement in the near future. At all events, the May statement is better than any monthly statement issued for quite some time. Production was large during the month, running in excess of the output for the same month last year, and reaching 126,962,544 lbs., but deliveries were also large, both for domestic consumption and for export, and nearly equaled the production, they aggregating 126,522,520 lbs., which compares with only 104,800,662 lbs. in May of last year. As a consequence, the further addition to stocks was this time very small, amounting to only 440,024 lbs. Stocks are now 165,995,932 lbs., as against only 122,030,195 lbs. at the beginning of the year. However, these stocks are not so very much larger than at this period in 1910, when the amount was 160,425,973 lb. This fact may possess significance, bearing in mind that last year after the end of July stocks rapidly and largely diminished. Improvement must come by reason of continued large consumption, inasmuch as there is apparently little inclination to curtail output, notwithstanding the low prices ruling for the metal. The following gives the comparative statistics for May and the five months:

	M	(ay	-Jan. 1 to	May 31
Copper—	1911.	1910.	1911.	1910.

It should be added that the foreign visible supply of copper continues to decline, being reported at 161,-463,760 lbs. for June 1, against 173,687,360 lbs. for May 1, 187,705,280 lbs. for Jan. 1 and 239,265,600 lbs. for June 1 last year.

The grain-crop situation in the United States on June 1, as indicated by the monthly report of the Department of Agriculture, issued on Thursday, reflects the somewhat unfavorable conditions experienced in some sections during May, leaving the outlook, however, still encouraging for a record wheat yield. Winter wheat, as also oats, suffered deterioration from the dry and hot weather that prevailed, and condition June 1 is stated to be under the 10-year average; but spring wheat starts off very auspiciously. Since the date of the report there have been beneficial rains in many districts.

Winter wheat shows a decline of 5.7 points during May, the condition June 1 being given as 80.4, against 86.1 a month earlier. On June 1 of 1910 and 1909 the condition was 80 and 80.7, respectively, and in 1908 it was 86. In the bumper-crop year (1906) the average was only 2.3 points higher than at present. The 10-year average is 81.6. The most conspicuous R. G. Dun & Co.'s statement for May, which shows declines are in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, but in the latter, the banner wheat-producing State, the situation is better than last year. As we pointed out a month ago, after allowing for the area abandoned on account of winter-killing, &c., there remains under cultivation the present season an aggregate of 31,367,-000 acres, or 6.6% more than the harvested area of last year. With that additional area and a condition slightly higher than a year ago, the Government's quantitative estimate of yield per acre, namely 15.3 bushels, would give a crop of winter wheat of 479,-915,100 bushels, as against 464,044,000 bushels last year.

Spring wheat, as already stated, has started off auspiciously, area having been further increased and the condition being above the average of recent years. The average condition as reported for June 1 this year is 94.6, against 92.8 on the same date a year ago, 95.2 in 1909 and 95 in 1908, with the 10-year average 93.6. Area, according to the Department, has been increased to the extent of 1,015,000 acres, or 4.9%, making the aggregate now 20,757,000 acres—the record planting. Area and condition considered together in comparing with earlier years, the outlook would appear to be for a spring-wheat yield well in excess of the 1909 record (290,823,000 bushels), with normal conditions. hereafter. But the Government estimates the yield at only 13.7 bushels per acre, and this points to a crop of 284,370,900 bushels. Last year the spring-wheat yield was 231,399,000 bushels.

The area under oats has been decreased to a nominal extent this year, according to the Department, the 1911 planting having been 35,250,000 acres, against 35,288,000 acres in 1910. The average condition is stated at 85.7, comparing with 91 on June 1 a year ago, 88.7 June 1 1909 and a 10-year average of 88.4. This was the situation at the beginning of the month; but private advices are to the effect that recent rains have improved the oats-crop situation considerably. The current promise, all things considered, is apparently not as favorable as last year, when the record crop of 1,126¾ million bushels was raised. The Department estimates the yield per acre at 27.7 bushels, which would give a total of 976,425,000 bushels. A decrease of 3% has been made in barley acreage this year, and condition June 1 was 90.2, as compared with 89.6 last year and 90.9 the 10-year average. Rye conditions a little lower than last year at this time.

Across the border, in Canada, the crop outlook is stated to be the most promising in many years. Concurrent with, and incidental to, the large immigration, area under wheat has increased appreciably and recent growing conditions are reported as exceptionally good. Under these circumstances a very considerable augmentation in yield is looked for. In Europe the wheat outlook, although not uniformly good, is on the whole quite favorable.

Commercial failures in May 1911, both as regards number of insolvents and volume of liabilities, record improvement over preceding months of the current calendar year, but continue above what might be termed an average or normal, and compare rather unfavorably with the corresponding month of 1910. Most mercantile and industrial lines have been subject to more or less stress in recent months, but conditions have been less satisfactory with traders than with manufacturers. This is clearly indicated by Messrs. that of the fifteen branches in the trading division, no less than thirteen report greater liabilities this year than last, the excess being large in the case of "Dry Goods and Carpets" and "Hardware, Stoves and Tools." In this division the aggregate number of failures in May 1911 was 702, representing liabilities of $6,002,124, and contrasting with 628 and only $3,916,851 in 1910 and 766 and $4,974,233 the previous year.

Disasters among manufacturers during the month numbered 264, with debts of $5,863,260, as against 218 in May a year ago, with liabilities of $3,677,256 and 231 and $7,156,140 in 1909. Among brokers, transporters, &c., the comparatively favorable situation noticeable in earlier months of the year continued in the period under review. The number of failures in May was almost identical with the month in 1910 (40 against 39), but liabilities were only $1,604,405, against $1,996,000 with the 1909 exhibit 31 and $2,253,377. The indebtedness of all insolvent concerns (1,006 in number) in the month of May 1911 was, as stated above, greater than for the like period of 1910, having been $13,469,789, against $9,590,186. In 1909, however, the total was $14,383,750 and in 1908 reached $13,643,381.

For the five months from Jan. 1 to May 31, while the number of insolvents was greater this year than last, the liabilities are only 90 million dollars, against 100½ millions. In 1909, however, the indebtedness for the five months was only 75% millions, but in 1908 reached 109\( \frac{5}{8} \) millions. The especially favorable feature of the 1911 exhibit is the comparatively moderate indebtedness shown by failed brokers, &c. fact, for the five months of 1911 it reaches only \$8,-433,668, against \$26,398,340 in 1910 and \$12,337,220 in 1909 and \$18,550,819 in 1908. Manufacturing liabilities also compare favorably with a year ago-38 1-3 millions, against 41 millions—and show an increase of only 6 millions over 1909 and are  $9\frac{1}{2}$  millions below 1908. But the trading indebtedness for the five months of 1911, at 43 1-3 millions of dollars, is greater than for the similar period of either of the three preceding years, the results having been, respectively, 33 and 31 and  $43\frac{1}{8}$  millions.

Failures in the Dominion of Canada in May, while considerably greater in number than in the month of last year—comparison being between 102 and 66—show only a very moderate gain in liabilities—$1,144,933, against $1,089,593. As in the United States, the greatest number of failures and the larger part of the indebtedness was in the trading division, which contrasted with the previous year almost in the ratio of 2 to 1. For the five months of 1911 the aggregate liabilities of all failed firms was only $5,363,229, as against $8,809,543.

The failure of the Birkbeck Bank in London, announced on Thursday, must not be regarded as in any way indicative of monetary unhealthiness in England. The institution was given unfavorable prominence last November through a run on its deposits attributed to an anonymous circular connecting it with the Charing Cross Bank, which had closed its doors; but the Bank of England then came to the rescue and business was continued, though it appears that confidence was shaken, for the number of depositors is now given as fewer than 60,000, whereas in the spring of last year its deposit accounts, according to an official statement, numbered 112,817. The excess of liabilities over assets is not expected to be serious; the total liabilities are given at \$43,380,910. The general banking position in London is to-day very strong. The Bank of England is carrying \$194,000,000 in bullion and a total reserve of \$150,000,000, which is equal to fully  $52\frac{1}{2}\%$  of its liabilities. The easy state of the money market there can be realized when it is mentioned that private discount rates this week went below 2%, and that there has been scarcely any competition in months for the new gold arriving from South Africa. British trade is still exceedingly prosperous. The Board of Trade reports that in May exports showed an increase over last year of more than \$20,-000,000, notwithstanding a decrease of nearly \$6,-500,000 in imports, due mainly to smaller receipts of raw materials and foodstuffs. It was thought probable this week that London would be called upon to send gold to New York, since demand sterling fell to 4 853/4 and European purchases of our securities continued in substantial volume. It can be definitely stated, however, that the principal New York bankers are antagonistic to a movement at present either from London or from Paris, where exchange has fallen to the goldexport point. For one thing, the firmness which developed in our money market last week has completely subsided, and, of equal importance, the withdrawal of gold from either of these centres would in all probability check further buying of American bonds. Even should an inflow of gold be rendered inevitable through a further decline in exchange, there would be no occasion to feel alarmed over the banking position at London or Paris. It is true that the Bank of France is carrying \$36,000,000 less gold than a year ago and \$97,000,000 less than in 1909, but gold exports can easily be prevented by charging a sufficiently high premium for the metal.

The coronation of King George V, which is to take place in the historic Westminster Abbey on June 22, promises to be the most notable social function since the crowning of King Edward, and judging from the worldwide interest manifested, from the great influx of peoples of all nationalities to the British capital, and from the royal and private arrangements made for the entertainment of visitors, the ceremony is likely to eclipse in splendor and magnitude anything witnessed since the days of Queen Elizabeth. Every civilized country is sending official delegates, the British colonies are prominently represented, warships and other craft from the seven seas will gather for the naval review, which, befitting the crowning of a "Sailor Prince," will form an imposing feature of the celebrations. Already the dignitaries from various nations have arrived in London, among the number being John Hays Hammond, the Special Ambassador selected to represent the United States, and Sir Wilfred Laurier, the Premier of Canada. It is estimated that a quarter of a million strangers have invaded the city, and the total is now being swelled by thousands daily. The long route of the procession from Buckingham Palace to the Abbey is to be threaded with temporary gates, which will be closed as soon as all the available street space adjoining them has been filled, a plan which is calculated to minimize the danger of overcrowding and stampeding. The United States will join other nations in wishing that the coronation of King George may be happily and successfully celebrated and that his reign will be as fruitful of international amity as was that of his royal father, "Edward, the Peacemaker." The new bonds which are expected shortly to unite Great Britain and the United States add to our interest in and well wishes for the peace and prosperity of the British Empire.

"Dollar diplomacy" is a phrase which has come into frequent use during the present Administration because of the avowed policy of co-operating with our strongest bankers in their efforts to extend this country's influence abroad, and particularly in the South American continent. Criticism has been leveled against Secretary Knox for his aggressiveness in supporting the schemes of bankers, but in most instances the critics have been more distinguished by antagonism to what they loosely describe as "Wall Street" than by knowledge of international finance. We have taken occasion to comment upon the various activities of the Secretary of State and have not always been able to express approval of his attitude towards foreign governments, but on the whole his and President Taft's policy of supporting the legitimate enterprises of our most reputable bankers has been worthy of cordial endorsement. Each transaction involving joint action on the part of our Government and bankers must be examined by itself. The determined effort to secure for American bankers a fair share of the Chinese Government loan has proved finally successful. And on Tuesday Secretary Knox and the Nicaraguan Minister signed a treaty "for the refunding of the foreign debt of Nicaragua and the extension of aid to the country for its further material development through American financiers." According to newspaper reports from Washington, the treaty "contemplates the adjustment of the claims growing out of the Zelaya regime and the general settlement of foreign claims against that country. Almost all these claims are American, there being only a few of minor importance held by citizens of other countries. They include not only the longstanding Emery claim and those growing out of the shooting of Cannon and Groce by order of Zelaya, but several others of a different character. The Government that succeeded Zelaya is desirous of canceling a number of the concessions granted by that dictator to American adventurers and others." Perhaps in this instance the Administration is going too far, but the Senate has yet to pass upon the agreement, as well as that tentatively arranged with Honduras, and that body, of course, may be trusted to go carefully and closely into the whole subject.

Reports emanated from Berlin three weeks ago that the potash dispute with Americans had been finally settled, but as the situation did not appear to have been thoroughly cleared, we refrained from passing any comment. This attitude is now shown to have been justified, for the cables this week bring the news that, while the controversy with the German syndicate was amicably settled, no arrangement has been found possible with the independent producers. A Berlin dispatch, confirmed by other advices, stated on Wednesday that "representatives of American potash interests to-day served the owners of independent German potash mines with the formal notice that they will refuse to accept deliveries of potash subject to the payment of a super-contingent tax." tention of the German contractors is that the very onerous additional tax levied since the contracts were made must be paid by the American buyers, whereas the latter refuse to comply with terms not specified in their original contracts. This part of the dispute is by far the most difficult to adjust, as the supercontingent tax does not apply to the contracts made with the German syndicate, but only to the exports of the independent operators. The question has latterly been removed from the field of diplomacy and will probably be fought out in the courts. Such a plan would eliminate the danger—at one time not inconsiderable—of international complications of farreaching consequences. Once the principle of arbitration has been more generally applied to large commercial affairs, a dispute of this kind, it is to be hoped, will be capable of adjustment without fear of diplomatic estrangements.

The hero of the successful Mexican revolution, Francisco I. Madero, made a triumphal entry into the capital on Wednesday. The day was given up wholly to rejoicing and in paying tribute to the "emancipator of the Republic," as he is now styled. The train which bore him towards Mexico City passed between miles of cheering citizens, and when the capital was reached the populace tendered him a riotous welcome, with all the customary accompaniments of public celebrations -flowers, music, parades, banquets, speech-making, &c. Through it all Madero seems to have carried himself with great modesty, a circumstance that has won him many new friends. His theme was liberty-liberty and democracy—the freedom of the individual and of the press. "I feel," he said, "that the public of Mexico are aware by this time as to what manner of man I am, and I will undertake no propaganda with a view to obtaining votes." The first Presidential election under the new regime will be held on Oct. 1 and the electors then chosen will select a President on Oct. 15. The expectation is that Madero will receive an overwhelming majority, but many things may happen between now and October, especially in a country where the public temper is so mercurial. Gen. Reyes, who has returned to Mexico, is said to have designs on the Presidency, and he enjoys a large military following. The Cientificos, or Catholic party, are reported to be in active opposition to Madero. "That there are some members of the so-called Cientificos who have plotted against my welfare there seems to be no reason to doubt," said Madero in discussing alleged plots to assassinate him.

The following statement from the leader of the rebellion is of special interest to this country in view of canards which were circulated here associating "Wall Street" or "High Finance" with the uprising:

"Judging from articles appearing in the foreign press, there are some who still think we were assisted in our revolution by American capital. I do not believe that I have ever denied this report personally, as I thought the statement made before Congress that not one cent of the money raised in the United States was to defray the costs of the revolution was sufficient. But I am pleased to state in the most emphatic language at my command that not one American dollar helped in the triumph of the cause I lead."

Provisional President de la Barra yesterday warmly praised the United States for the impartial and friendly attitude preserved throughout the prolonged hostilities. He said:

"I have nothing but praise for the conduct of the United States. When I left Washington, I assured President Taft that, though I could not be certain of the ways or means, I was confident that peace soon would be restored in Mexico. That was hardly three months ago; but within that period, as well as previously, the attitude of the Administration in the United States appears to have been guided by the highest desires of friendliness.

"In fact, now that the revolution is over, I am glad to applaud the calm and sagacious policy of the United States. It was a strong, practical proof to us that the friendship of the United States for Mexico has been,

and will be, real and sincere.'

The pacification of the Republic will presumably require considerable time. In Lower California the bandits will not obey the orders of Madero or any one else. It is reported that several thousand soldiers will be transported over the Southern Pacific Ry., by special arrangement with our Government, from Juarez to the scene of the disturbances. Throughout the greater part of Mexico the advent of Madero is apparently welcomed. It is easier to tear down than to build up, however, so that his task is by no means finished.

The volcano Colima, in the southern part of the State of Jalisco, Mexico, broke into violent eruption on Tuesday, and very early on Wednesday morning an earthquake shook the Republic, doing widespread damage to property and causing the loss, according to the newspaper despatches, of more than a thousand lives in various parts of the country. In Mexico City the death list exceeded sixty, and the number injured was still larger. The artillery quarters collapsed, adobe houses fell, the building occupied by the street railway power plant was wrecked, fissures opened in the streets, a wall of the National Palace cracked and the Cathedral of Santo Domingo was damaged. At Zapotlan, near the scene of the eruption, over three hundred were killed, the reports state, while the mortality was heavy also in Tonila, San Andres, Platanar, Tuxpan and the City of Colima. The volcano has been more or less active for upwards of forty years. In 1902 and again in 1909 the mountain belched forth streams of lava and showed other symptoms of disturbance, but no serious havoc was wrought. The latest reports place the death roll arising from Tuesday's and Wednesday's upheavals at 1,300, but this figure may prove to have been an exaggeration.

Some advice and opinions of Mr. H. B. Fullerton in a letter to the Congestion Commission, concerning what might be accomplished in using unoccupied city land for raising garden truck, is worthy of more attention than suggestions from many persons who merely expound theories, for Mr. Fullerton speaks by actual experience. Having entered the employ of the Long Island Railroad quite a number of years ago as an agent to make known to the public the merits (if not the existence in a business sense) of that very unknown portion of New York which geographically almost belongs to New England, Mr. Fullerton afterwards took up the work of reclaiming land believed to be agriculturally worthless. He undertook this with faith and enthusiasm, and he carried it triumphantly to success; therefore, he is entitled to very respectful attention.

His idea is that enough garden truck could be grown on temporarily vacant land within the city to effect an appreciable reduction in the cost of city living; he even appears to carry his belief farther, for he suggests that urban or suburban farm land could be made, by skilful cultivation, to be worth more than the $100 an acre at which it is commonly held for enhancement due to the city's growth. There are few potato growers on Long Island, he says, who do not get 150 to 200 bushels to the acre in a season; a yield of 300 bushels he calls common, and one of 400 bushels is "occasional." Market gardening he holds to be only in its infancy. As a rule, "intensive" practice is unknown to Americans, the near-by market gardeners being mostly foreigners, some of whom are as expert as the Paris gardeners who have raised $3,000 worth in one year off of three acres. In potatoes, he thinks, is the largest relative return; ordinary methods can net $100 per acre from this tuber; cauliflower, asparagus, cabbage and celery, according to instances he cites, yield net profits ranging from $200 to $1,000 an acre. His figures, it is reported, make the Congestion Commissioners wonder why speculative holders do not grow vegetables instead of talking rapid transit and putting in sewers and sidewalks.

Such figures and advocacy may possibly seem extravagantly enthusiastic, yet we must start with the fact that here in the metropolis is an unfailing and thus far insatiable market for food, and that here is also an apparent opportunity of bringing producer and consumer close together. Next, it is indisputable that thorough, scientific, studied, intensive farming is unpracticed on any considerable scale as yet; we are only just beginning to talk about it, for superficial methods (because they are quickest and easiest) are always practiced contentedly until they begin to fail in results. And, as we remarked above, Mr. Fullerton is more than an enthusiast; he has accomplished things.

Discounts in London this week declined to a new minimum, 1 15-16%, but this rate was not general and did not continue. At the close spot bills cannot be negotiated under 21/8%, or not quite 1% below the official minimum, while bills to arrive are charged 21/8% to 23/8%. London continues to receive all the new gold arriving weekly from South Africa, and exchange on London in Paris permits of shipments across the Channel. In Paris the private discount rate is  $2\frac{1}{8}\%$ , from which there has been only slight variation for a number of weeks. The position in Berlin is attracting attention. Discounts there have been marked up to 31/4% for spot bills, while for bills to arrive as high as  $3\frac{1}{2}\%$  is asked. Money there is still dearer than at most other centres. Sudden changes have occurred in Amsterdam; last week an upward movement was in progress and at the opening of this week 3% was named, whereas yesterday the rate was down to 2%%. Weakness has also set in at Brussels, bills having been placed there during the last few days at 2% and occasionally at 1\%\%. No changes have been made in European bank rates.

The Bank of England's weekly statement showed mixed changes. Though about £550,000 new gold was secured in the open market on Tuesday (Whit Monday having been a holiday), the bullion account showed a decrease on Thursday of £250,654. As, however, circulation was reduced by a larger figure, the total reserve improved £35,031. There was a contraction in loans to the extent of £633,085, ordinary deposits fell off £157,070 and public deposits decreased £454,087. The consequence was that the ratio of reserve to liabilities rose from 51.90% last week to 52.54% this week, a very satisfactory percentage for this time of the year. The total amount of bullion on hand, our correspondent advises us, was £38,803,400. while since the returns were compiled, the Bank has bought £148,000 gold bars and received £5,000 in sovereigns from France, though £50,000 has been sent to South Africa. Our correspondent furnishes the following details of the gold movement in and out of the Bank for the Bank week: Imports, £585,000 (of which £17,000 from Australia, £19,000 from France and £549,000 bought in the open market); exports, nil, and shipments of £836,000 net to the interior of Great Britain.

In recording a week ago the advance in local money rates, we remarked that "it were easily possible to attach unjustified importance" to the incident; and subsequent events have proved the wisdom of such a statement, for rates this week have declined for nearly all maturities. The reaction is readily accounted for. The Stock Exchange activity which immediately followed the American Tobacco decision has not been maintained, mercantile borrowing has been light, the output of new securities has diminished materially this week, currency has come from interior points in volume and foreign exchange has moved towards the goldimport basis. Stock Exchange houses find that the public is not greatly increasing its holdings of stocks; indeed, more than one firm is carrying less to-day than a fortnight ago. The pronounced easiness in day-to-day loans is also exercising a restraining influence upon borrowers. The poorer bank statement issued last Saturday had no stiffening effect whatever upon interest rates. The actual surplus fell off \$7,-977,225, cash on hand decreased \$6,288,300 and loans expanded \$12,601,200, though deposits increased only \$6,755,700. Comprehensive statistics showing the banking position in this State will be available in the near future, as the Comptroller of the Currency and the State Superintendent of Banking yesterday issued calls for returns as of June 7. Money brokers have larger offerings than they can place on approved collateral, and in order to stimulate business concessions of 1/4 of 1% have been offered in short as well as long maturities. The slightly higher quotations named for commercial paper, however, have continued, as the supply is a little, though not much, larger than formerly. The difference between the charge for six months' collateral loans and for discounting prime six months' mercantile bills is now  $\frac{1}{2}$  of  $\frac{1}{6}$ , the minimum rates being  $\frac{3}{4}$ % and 33/4%, respectively. Next week preparations will have to be completed for bidding for the \$50,000,000 Panama bonds, the date for opening subscriptions having been fixed for Saturday. Two Chinese loans are impending, and it is probable that corporate financing will also be renewed shortly on a large scale. Any radical advance in the value of money is, however, out of the question at this time, since gold would naturally gravitate to this centre from Europe and the receipts of currency from interior points would also no doubt increase.

The detailed range for time money at the close of the week is as follows:  $2\frac{1}{2}$ @ $2\frac{3}{4}$ % for sixty days;  $2\frac{3}{4}$ @ 3% for ninety days; 3% for four months; 3@31/4% for five months;  $3\frac{1}{4}@3\frac{1}{2}\%$  for six months and  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ for over-the-year, with most of the business done at the bid figures. Call money has not loaned above 2½% on any day this week; transactions have been made at as low as 2% and the ruling rate has not once exceeded 23/8%, though that rate prevailed on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Yesterday the range was 21/4% to 21/2%, the final loan being made at 23/8%. The range for sixty to ninety days' endorsed bills receivable is  $3\frac{1}{2}$ @ $3\frac{3}{4}$ %, but for the best four to six months' single-named bills the terms are now 334@ 4%. The supply of choice paper is still limited, but banks which are more anxious for a generous yield than they are fastidious about quality can find fairly large amounts of second-rate paper on offer at 41/4 to as high as 5%.

Gold would probably have been brought from Paris to New York this week had the Bank of France been willing to sell eagles at the minimum price; but bankers who made inquiries found that the French institution was not disposed to facilitate exports of the precious metal. Two main reasons exist for the low exchange rates in Paris. The French harvests were very poor, and as a consequence imports increased markedly, while exports diminished. Then, the unprofitable money rates which have ruled in Paris have stimulated the purchasing of foreign investments, notably American bonds and stocks. The listing of Atchison shares on the Paris Parquet, which was achieved after tedious negotiations, and the arrangements now in progress for the admission of American Telephone & Telegraph stock, have also entered into the international financial movements in a way calculated to increase France's indebtedness to us. It is very questionable, however, whether a gold outflow to America will be permitted. French bankers have absolute control of gold exports, and French investors rely upon the advice of their bankers as to the purchase of foreign securities. Should, therefore, a gold movement be forced, steps would likely be promptly taken to restore the equilibrium of exchange. Inasmuch as interest rates in New York are already on too low a basis to satisfy our banks, and inasmuch also as our influential underwriters are anxious to place additional amounts of securities abroad, an inflow of gold is not desired at this juncture. France may send the metal to London-in fact, it probably will-and if sterling goes ½c. per pound below this week's minimum of 4 85¾, shipments from that city to New York may become inevitable. We may add, however, that the largest dealers in exchange do not look for any important movement.

Security bills have been almost solely responsible for the fall in sterling to the lowest level since the end of January last. The output by one international banking house has been especially heavy, due chiefly to sales of bonds to French bankers. During the current month the European subscriptions for new American issues have been comparatively light, but the outlook is that activity will be renewed. The Panama offering is expected to prove overwhelmingly successful, and disappointed bidders may turn to other gilt-edge issues. Re-investment of July dividend and interest disbursements should also give the bond market a fillip, both at home and abroad. There are not many commercial bills in the market. Bankers who handle this class of exchange are still gravely perturbed over the litigation which has been instituted with a view to fastening upon them responsibility for the genuineness of bills of lading, and diligent efforts have been exerted to devise methods of handling drafts so as to entirely eliminate banking risks. Unless the courts render a favorable decision in the suit brought against the Guaranty Trust Company, serious complications may arise over the exportation of the new cotton crop. The New York Clearing House may be appealed to, but any mandate which it might see fit to issue would not be binding upon the private banking firms which play so important a part in New York's foreign exchange operations.

On Thursday $500,000 gold coin was sent to Canada, where money rates are still much higher than here. This was the first engagement since Monday of last week, when $2,250,000 was remitted. Yesterday another shipment of $500,000 was announced.

Compared with Friday of last week, sterling exchange on Saturday was very weak; demand declined sharply to 4 8585@4 8590, cable transfers to 4 8605@4 8610 and sixty days to 4 8395@4 8405. On Monday, after forenoon weakness, the tone became slightly firmer and demand at the close was quoted at 4 8585@ 4 8510; cable transfers were somewhat firmer again at 4 8610@4 8615, while sixty days fell to 4 8390% 484. On Tuesday, rates advanced, due in part to speculation in foreign exchange; demand rose to 4 8595@4 86, cable transfers to 4 8615@4 8620 and sixty days to 48415@48425. Sterling declined on Wednesday to the previous low level of the current movement, notwithstanding that trading was quiet all day; the close was at 4 8485@4 8590 for demand, 4 8610@4 8615 for cable transfers and 4 8390@4 84 for sixty days. On Thursday demand again declined, on drawing of bills against bonds placed in Paris, to 4 8575@4 8585, cable transfers fell to 4 8605@4 8610 and sixty days to 4 8380@4 8390. On Friday the tone was firmer both for spot bills and for bills to go next Tuesday. The market closed at 4 8390@4 84 for 60 days, 4 8585@4 8590 for demand and 4 8610@ 4 8615 for cables. Commercial on banks was quoted at 4 831/2 @4 833/4 and documents for payment 4 831/2 @4 833/4. Cotton for payment ranged from 4 831/4@  $4.83\frac{1}{2}$ , grain for payment from  $4.83\frac{1}{2}$ @ $4.83\frac{3}{4}$ .

JUDGE GARY ON GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF PRICES.

Whatever may have been the original purpose of the inquiry carried on during the past fortnight by the Stanley Committee of the House of Representatives, it cannot be denied that it has brought into public view matters of great interest in the field both of history and of economics. In the main the inquiry has thus far converged, as readers of the daily dispatches are aware, on the so-called "Tennessee Coal & Iron deal" in the panic of 1907, when the stock of that corporation, held by a syndicate and its brokers, was transferred at the crisis of the panic to the United States Steel Corporation. Testimony on this matter has elicited widely different ideas about that transaction, with inferences in the newspaper comments varying as widely. The theory of the Tennessee Coal syndicate itself, as voiced by Mr. John W. Gates in his testimony, seems to be that they were somehow forced, unjustly and against their will, to part with their holdings; the theory of most other people, expressed in Judge Gary's subsequent testimony, is that an overloaded syndicate, which had virtually created a corner in the stock, was confronted with disaster when the panic came and went for relief to the Steel Corporation, on the undoubtedly correct presumption that nobody else could buy their stock and save them

The much-discussed question why the Steel Corporation did not pay cash for the Tennessee Coal & Iron holdings has been conclusively answered by Judge Gary on the ground that, although the Corporation had the necessary cash on deposit with the banks, it could not have ventured to withdraw it for such purposes, because of the very serious situation which such withdrawals would have caused to the depositories. As to why the embarrassed brokers of 1907 were able to raise money on the security of the Steel Corporation bonds given to them in exchange for the Tennessee Coal stock when they could not command the same money on security of the stock itself, that is a question which Wall Street should find no difficulty in answering. To be able to borrow, or to continue borrowing, on a cornered stock at a presumably fictitious price and in the middle of a financial panic, is something which the most optimistic financier would hardly expect.

It is not, however, primarily our purpose to discuss the merits of the Tennessee Coal & Iron deal itself. The Stanley Committee's inquiry has taken considerably wider range. In no particular did the testimony offered challenge greater public attention than in Judge Gary's recital of his views regarding the relations of the corporations and the Government in the matter of fixing prices. "I believe," Judge Gary testified on Friday of last week, "we must come to enforced publicity and governmental control." Asked if he meant governmental control of prices, Judge Gary answered:

"I do, even as to prices, and, so far as I am concerned, speaking for our company so far as I have the right, I would be very glad if we knew exactly where we stand. . . . If we had some place where we could go, to a responsible governmental authority, and say to them: 'Here are our facts and figures, here is our property, here our cost of production; now you tell us what we have the right to do and what prices we have the right to charge.'"

It has been recognized at once, both on the market and in the comment of the press, that this assertion by the head of the greatest manufacturing interest in the country is a very serious matter. To many readers, indeed, it must have come with a shock of surprise, as something utterly incomprehensible. While conservative critics, in the press and elsewhere, were giving voice to astonishment and regret, the Socialist organs hailed the proposal, coming from so important a financial source, as a victory for their creed. "If what Judge Gary described as government regulation and supervision," wrote the chief Socialist organ, the New York "Call," "does not lead to government ownership, it leads nowhere and changes nothing." It is "the capitalist prelude to the social and industrial revolution."

So much for the immediate inferences. For ourselves, we should suppose that in the main Judge Gary's proposition is the outgrowth from another theory formulated some time ago by the Chairman of the Steel Corporation. Speaking of the market for steel products in April 1908, Judge Gary declared that "prices should at all times be reasonable and fair. The mere fact that the demand is greater than the supply—that the necessities of the purchaser are greaterdoes not justify an increase in price, nor does the fact that the demand is less than the supply furnish an argument for lowering the price." Now we have always recognized the considerations which brought the Chairman of the Steel Corporation to this somewhat unusual view. It was in a certain sense a corollary to the declared intention of the Steel Corporation to prevent undue and unreasonable enhancement of prices at times of intense commercial activity. It is also safe to say, that most people would concur in the general statement that prices ought to be made reasonable.

But when one begins to look further into the question, he is apt to be lost in an economic fog immediately. For if recognition of supply and demand as determining influences on prices is denied, there is obviously little in the past experience of trade to settle disputed questions regarding prices in the interests of all parties. It has grown to be so common a tendency, in these days, to resort to the theory of government control when private control appears to cause complications, that it is not perhaps wholly surprising that Judge Gary should have followed a similar impulse. Yet we greatly fear that the launching of such a proposition, without careful and thorough consideration by the public of what the plan involves, is a most unfortunate thing in the discussions of the day.

In the first place, it must be said at once that the scope of such a plan is all but boundless. The case of the railroads, whose rates are already controlled by a Government commission, has been cited. But whatever any one's judgment may be as to the advantages or disadvantages of the Inter-State Commerce Commission's supervision of railway rates, it will scarcely be denied that the Government's intervention in that matter was due to three considerations—first, the fact that in this country cost of transportation underlies almost every industry; second, the fact that discrimination, as between different districts and different customers, had been practiced in the past; third, the fact that, through force of circumstances—including the Government's own legislation—our railroads had been compelled to act so completely in concert when fixing rates that the rate-making power was equivalent to complete monopoly.

Now, whether one holds or does not hold the belief that the Inter-State Commerce Commission's powers provide the practical solution for such a situation, it none the less remains true that the railway situation differs in all of these respects from that which prevails in every other industry. It is also a matter of general conviction that commission supervision of what are known as public service enterprises may be applied, without going the full length of governmental ownership or control, as it could hardly be applied in the case of industry at large. Judge Gary was asked on the stand if in his opinion such a process, applied to the steel industry, could stop short of complete and absolute governmental control. He answered that the questioner was better able to judge than he himself, but expressed his strong personal disapproval of the scheme for governmental ownership.

Undoubtedly a flat proposition for governmental ownership of manufacturing industries would awaken such public protest as no other economic or political proposal could arouse. But the proposition for governmental control of prices in industry at large seems to us all the more insidious because it may not to many minds present with equal clearness the problems actually involved. Yet those problems would, in our judgment, be almost as serious as the problems created by a plan of outright governmental ownership. If the question of prices for manufactured goods is to be thrown into the hands of a political commission, dominated in greater or less degree by political influences, it may be presumed that pressure would be in general applied for relatively low prices. But as to the grounds on which the question would be settled, as to how low such prices should be, and as to what should be said if prices are proposed which will deny a living profit to large participants in the industry, no convincing reply is possible. It is not by any means difficult to conceive a resultant situation in which purchase of the industrial plants by government would seem to be the only conceivable solution.

Yet, again, is Government to destroy the last vestige of competition by forbidding, in any great manufacturing or producing industry, new producers with greater facilities or improved processes to fix a price which such new developments would justify? It is conceivable, when indulging in conjecture on so vague and uncertain a matter of discussion, that the Government might fix the scale of prices so low as to drive absolutely out of business the older interests in the trades, or, on the other hand, so high as to deny to the consuming public all the fruits of invention and manufacturing economies. How is even this supposedly infallible Government to judge as between two such fundamental considerations?

As it seems to us, the problems of the Inter-State Commerce Commission would be magnified a thousandfold. It is only by a prolonged and painstaking study of the question that the Inter-State Commercee Commissioners have arrived even at their present admittedly imperfect knowledge of the railway industry. Are we to take it cheerfully for granted that a similar commission, or series of commissions, is to make itself master of all the intricacies of every American manufacturing industry? The thing is flatly unthinkable. Even if the basic considerations of cost of production, advantages of position, facilities for distribution, and so on, could be waived, there would remain those almost equally essential considerations as to the question of acquiring and maintaining an export trade or avoiding destructive competition in the home market by foreign manufacturers. And behind all these would stand the formidable problems of the relations of manufacturing industries to the cost of labor and the continuance of full employment. How would a Government commission meet those questions?

We are strongly inclined to think that any one who has honestly confronted this hopeless mass of conjectural problems will turn back with relief, even to the troublesome problems involved in the old-time regime of open competition. That the destructive and wasteful methods of competition which prevailed a generation ago have been modified very radically through the new methods of the present day is nowhere denied. The problem which, in our judgment, must now be worked out is the adjustment of these new methods to the permanent conditions of industry. If the general regulation of prices, through supply and demand and through legitimate competition, were to break down entirely, it would then be time to talk about some new plan which would uproot all the teachings of the past. But that time has certainly not yet come; if it had, we should find such freely competing industries as the cotton goods trade thrown into outright disorganization. So far is this from being true that these are the very industries which, in the past three or four troubled years, have endured the strain of fluctuating supply and demand with the best results, of all, on the whole, both to themselves and to the consuming public.

THE NEW SCHEME OF CITY GOVERNMENT IN NEW JERSEY.

This new law, approved April 25, took effect immediately, but remains in suspense as to any city until after acceptance by such city at a special election to be called on a written petition by one-fifth of the legal voters who voted at the last preceding general election. Subject to this optional acceptance, the law applies to all political subdivisions smaller than counties. The word "city" is used for convenience and is to be construed to mean "town," "borough" or other "municipality," and the scheme is one for governing these by commission.

Every city of 10,000 or more population is to be governed by a board of at least five, and smaller cities are to be governed by at least three, each of them having a vote upon all public questions arising. The commissioners must have been citizens and residents of the city for at least two years previous; they are to serve four years, and their number may be increased from three to five or decreased from five to three by an ordinance adopted by themselves. They shall begin by designating one of their number as "Mayor," and he shall preside, but without a veto power.

The salaries of the commissioners range from $50 to $5,000, according to size of cities, with a slight extra to the Mayor. The boards are to "have and powers now had and possessed by the Mayor and City Council and all other executive or legislative bodies in said city, and have complete control over the affairs of the city adopting the provisions of this Act." All these powers are to be in five departments: Public Affairs, Revenue and Finance, Public Safety, Streets and Public Improvements, Parks and Public Property; but in any city with only three commissioners the first and third departments shall be consolidated, as shall the fourth and fifth. At the first regular meeting the commissioners must designate one of themselves to be director of each of these departments, except that of Public Affairs.

Public instruction, presumably because that is a State scheme, is expressly exempted from application of this law. No ordinance shall be valid which would make the net bonded indebtedness of the city more than 10% on valuation unless such ordinance has been first approved by a majority of the electors at a special election.

The initiative, the referendum and the recall are distinctly incorporated in this scheme. For the first the electors may at any time petition for "any proposed ordinance." If 15% of the number who voted at the last preceding election join in the petition and also request that the desired ordinance be submitted to the people unless passed by the commissioners, then the latter shall pass the ordinance, unaltered, within 20 days, or forthwith call a special election (unless a general municipal election be due within 90 days), and at either the special or the general one the ordinance shall be voted upon, unaltered. But if the petition is signed by not less than 10 or more than 15%, then the ordinance shall be passed without change within 20 days or be submitted "at the next general city election occurring not more than 30 days after." If a majority vote is obtained for the proposed matter, it shall become a valid ordinance, and then cannot be repealed or amended except by popular vote. Any number of ordinances may be voted upon together, but not more than one special election may be had in the same six months. The governing commissioners may submit the repeal or amending of any ordinance to vote "at any succeeding general election." We cite these proceedings as to initiative, as they are found in paragraph 16, but they seem somewhat obscure.

As for the referendum (which is also included in the preceding), every ordinance which is not called for because of the immediate preservation of the public safety or other emergency occasion and, passed by a two-thirds vote, shall remain in suspense for ten days; within that time 25% of the voters may protest, in which case the board shall reconsider. If the board persists, the ordinance must go before the voters and shall not become valid unless they approve. The board may submit to the people any measure within their own power to enact, and at any called special election other questions which have not been named may be submitted to vote as well, if such are proper. If provisions in two or more submitted measures conflict, "then the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall control."

As for recall, "the holder of any elective office may be removed at any time by the electors qualified to vote for the successor of such incumbent." A recall petition, stating the reasons and signed by at least possess all administrative, judicial and legislative 25% of a number equal to the entire vote cast at the last preceding election, may be filed with the City Clerk. When verified, the Clerk shall lay the petition before the board, and if the obnoxious official does not resign within five days, the board "shall" order a new election. Unless this obnoxious official files a written request to the contrary, the Clerk shall put his name on the official ballot, and if he gets the largest vote he shall be deemed clean and shall continue in his office. If some other persons gets the largest vote at the "removal" election, the incumbent shall "be deemed removed" on qualification of the successor. The successor shall fill the unexpired portion of the term. No person who has been removed by recall or has resigned under recall shall be appointed to any office within one year thereafter; but no recall shall be filed until the person at whom it is aimed has held his office at least a year, nor shall more than one recall be levied at the same person during his entire term.

In case a majority of the voters at the advertised special election called for the purpose vote to adopt this governing scheme, it becomes in all respects valid and binding as to such city, provided the assenting votes amount to 30% of the number cast for legislators at the last preceding general election; then, at their first meeting, the governing board shall wipe off any Acts or parts of Acts "in any wise affecting the government of such cities" which are inconsistent with this Act, an exception to this being made in favor of an Act of 1908 relative to district courts. If a majority is not obtained for adoption, provision is made for a resubmission of the question of adoption during the last year of the Mayor or equivalent officer chosen at the next election following this unfavorable vote. Moreover, the door is not absolutely closed against escape from results of the choice, for any city which has accepted this scheme and lived under it for six years may, upon a petition by 25% of the "electors," pass (at another special election) upon the question of abandoning this and resuming its charter. Finally, in case any portion of this Act is successfully attacked as unconstitutional, "the rest shall stand" and the condemned portion "shall be exscinded."

Not much comment is needed upon all this. In no sense or respect is it democratic government, for that means representative government. No competent business man ever does, himself and by his own personal act, anything which he can delegate to others. The original New England town meeting—the smallest and most successful political microcosm this continent has known—had its chosen agents, and was content to let them finish their elected terms and be held responsible afterwards. When cities of 10,000 or more inhabitants undertake to do their own governing by converting their chosen servants into marionettes, it is manifest that no such attempt can operate practically.

Nor could anything be imagined which is inevitably so destructive of independence, responsibility and usefulness in judges, legislators or other elected officers as to keep attached to them the "string" of a recall. Instead of leaving legislator and judge to inquire what is according to justice and is for the real interest of the people, both are set, at their peril, to considering what the people "want." And what they want may be far from what they need and ought to have. Examples of this have already been furnished, and one Representative in Congress has told us how, in some Western town, the Mayor interrupted a prize fight, in exact accordance with a prohibiting law, whereupon the angry spectators at once started a recall petition against him.

Petitions for the special election are in circulation in Hoboken, Jersey City, Elizabeth, Plainfield and about a score of other towns; and the election will be held in Bayonne on Tuesday next, the required 20% of signatures having been obtained there. But an assenting majority of the vote cast is required, and the assenting vote (not the assenting majority) must be 30% of the total vote cast for legislators at the last preceding general election; if either of these conditions fails, the subject goes over until the beginning of the last year of the Mayor or equivalent officer "elected at the election following the rejection of this Act."

Failure to vote will thus be almost as effective a hindrance as to vote negatively, and the propagandists for the scheme must be very active, as such people usually are; the result will be doubtful, and the indifferent voters may be the deciding factor. The law may be viewed as either a scheme urged and believed in by the Legislature, or as merely offering the sovereign people (after so much talk about a more effectual control by them of public affairs) an opportunity to decide whether they really want to try the experiment of turning representative government into the reverse and finding out how it works. A town which tries it must get on with it for six years, subject to a cry for repeal or amendment of the law; but if the thing is to be tried at all, it might as well be in New Jersey as elsewhere.

The bill for providing a commission government for Buffalo was defeated in Albany on Wednesday, and it will be more prudent to wait and profit by observation of adventurous neighbors.

TRACTION DEVELOPMENTS IN PHILADELPHIA.

An important change in the management of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. occurred on Monday last, when Peter A. B. Widener and a number of his associates retired from the board, their places being taken by prominent men who have not heretofore been identified with street railway properties in Philadelphia. Mr. Widener has been a part of the management of operating street railways in Philadelphia for about 35 years, and at one time he was President of the Union Traction Co., which operated all the street railways of that city for some years prior to July 1902. The development of the railways from horse car line to cable lines and later to trolley roads, and the consolidation of competing systems into one, which was followed by the construction of a subway and elevated road, have all been effected during his connection with the companies, and during his career more than $70. 000,000 of capital has been raised for Philadelphia's transportation facilities. Mr. Widener's retirement from this particular field of work is an event of much interest in the Quaker City. His son, George D. Widener, is among those who resigned from the Rapid Transit board to make room for the new members.

At the head of the new management is Edward T. Stotesbury, a member of the firm of Drexel & Co. of Philadelphia and of J. P. Morgan & Co. of this city. Mr. Stotesbury becomes Chairman of the board. He takes with him as directors Horatio G. Lloyd, his partner; Thomas E. Mitten, President of the Chicago City Railway Co., to whose efforts is largely due the present efficiency and prosperity of that system; C. S. W. Packard, President of the Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives & Granting Annuities, and Charles E. Ingersoll, a director of the Pennsylvania RR. and of the Philadelphia Electric Co. These five new directors also comprise the executive committee of the Rapid Transit Co.

This change in the management was only brought about after eight months of hard work. In October 1910 a petition was presented to Mr. Stotesbury, asking him to assume the management of the company, and assuring him that vacancies would be made in the board for whatever associates he might name. This petition was signed by all of the directors of the Rapid Transit Co. and of the Union Traction Co., a leased property, and by owners of a majority of the stock of both companies. The petition was presented because the Rapid Transit Co. and been unable for four years to earn its rentals and fixed charges, and because it was apparent that a deficit would also be made for the fiscal year ending with June 30 1911. Mr. Stotesbury agreed to accept the offer upon two conditions, first, that Union Traction stockholders would agree to guarantee new obligations of the Rapid Transit Co. for capital requirements, and, second, that sufficient appropriation from earnings should be made "properly to maintain the physical integrity of the property."

It was later agreed that the Rapid Transit Co. should borrow $10,000,000, to be negotiated in yearly amounts of $2,000,000, and that the loan should be guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Union Traction Co. Par of Union Traction stock is $50, but only $17 50 per share has been paid in. There is thus an unpaid capital amounting to $32 50 per share, or $19,500,000, for which the Union Traction shareholders under certain conditions may be liable for assessment. It is this assessable liability that gives value to the guaranty given upon the new Rapid Transit obligation. To secure the Union Traction Co. for its guaranty, the Rapid Transit Co. has agreed to deed to the Union Traction all of its properties acquired since it leased the Union Traction system in 1902, subject to certain funded debt, and, further to protect the Union Traction, a fund of $1,500,000 has been created by the Rapid Transit Co. out of available securities to make up any deficits that may occur for three years, so that during that period there may be no reduction in the Union Traction dividend of 6% on par, or $3 per annum.

These details were not perfected without a great deal of red tape, which included special meetings of the Rapid Transit and Union Traction shareholders, who authorized and ratified the plans, and action by City Councils granting the consent of the City of Philadelphia.

The second condition, which relates to maintenance, has been interpreted by Mr. Mitten to mean the appropriation of 15% of earnings for up-keep, an amount which, it is stated, is one-fourth greater than the Rapid Transit has been in the habit of so applying.

At Mr. Stotesbury's request, the books of the Rapid Transit Co. were audited by a firm of certified public accountants, and certain changes were made. A deficit of $1,118,000 was shown as of June 30 1910, which was largely due to losses incurred by a strike. It was $658,651 increase shown.

agreed that this loss should be distributed over a period of years. By adjustments of this kind, the large deficit was changed into a surplus of $607,009. Stockholders agreed to the creation of a voting trust for a period of five years to protect the Stotesbury management for that length of time, and $19,306,150, or 386,123 shares, have been deposited out of a total issue of $30,000,000.

The engineering firm of Ford, Bacon & Davis has made an exhaustive report on the condition of the Rapid Transit property to the Railroad Commission of Pennsylvania, which will be of aid to the new management. While the plans have been under contemplation, the position of the company has been further strengthened by a decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, which upholds the contract of the company with the city.

Of the proceeds of the new $10,000,000 loan, only $8,000,000 will be available for the purpose of supplying new equipment and making new construction, including additions to power houses, as $1,600,000 will be set aside to retire obligations maturing within five years, and the commission of the bankers underwriting or negotiating the loan will be $400,000.

Mr. Stotesbury and his associates have the good-will of the people of Philadelphia, investors as well as patrons of the road, and the only matter about which there may be difficulty relates to the attitude of the employees, who conducted two unsuccessful strikes within two years.

The company, which now pays conductors and motormen 23 cents per hour, has agreed to increase the pay ½ cent per hour yearly, beginning with July 1, until the pay equals 25 cents per hour. Mr. Mitten in a statement goes further and states that by 1915 he expects that the company will be able to pay 28 cents per hour. If the employees show a disposition to help along the rehabilitation of the Rapid Transit Co., its future ought to be promising.

RAILROAD GROSS EARNINGS FOR MAY.

Our preliminary statement of railroad gross earnings for the month of May makes a somewhat better comparison than did the preliminary compilations for either of the two months preceding. In March there was a decrease of $1,053,860, or 1.59%, and in April a falling off of $1,238,713, or 1.99%. For the month of May now the total of the earnings actually runs somewhat larger than for the same month last year, the increase being $658,651, or 1.01%.

But it should be remembered that the month had an extra working day, May 1911 having contained only four Sundays while May 1910 had five. more, it is true of this latest statement, as of the preceding statements, that the result is very much better than it otherwise would be by reason of the inclusion of three Canadian systems, each of which records a considerable gain, trade continuing very active in the Dominion. The three systems referred to are the Canadian Pacific with a gain of $896,000, the Grand Trunk of Canada with a gain of $210,235 and the Canadian Northern with an increase of $220,700. The improvement for the three companies combined it will be seen, aggregates no less than $1,326,935. It follows that with these three Canadian systems omitted there would be for the United States roads included in our table a loss of $668,284, instead of the

It is to be remembered, too, that this preliminary compilation embraces merely the roads that make it a practice to furnish early estimates of their gross receipts (only ten days, it should not be forgotten, have elapsed since the close of the month), and these comprise mainly transportation lines in the West and South, where business depression has been less of an adverse influence than in the great manufacturing and mineral sections of the Eastern and Central States, and which lines have all along been making very much better returns than the roads in other parts of the country. Bearing in mind that such leading systems as the New York Central, the Pennsylvania, the Union Pacific, the Southern Pacific, the Burlington & Quincy, and numerous other companies of the same class, are never represented in our early statements, and that it does not seem probable that the gross business of these can have equaled the large amounts reached last year, it is safe to say that when complete returns for the month shall be available there will be a loss in gross for May, notwithstanding the extra work day, though doubtless the loss will not be as heavy as it was in April.

The reason why the showing for May is not so poor as for the preceding month is that comparison is with a period last year when the coal traffic on some roads was greatly reduced by reason of a suspension of mining in the bituminous regions. On the 1st of April last year there was a pretty wide stoppage of work in the soft-coal regions in various parts of the country; but except in a few districts the suspension did not continue far into May. The most marked exceptions were in Illinois and the Southwest. It is in those sections where improvement in earnings is now recorded. Doubtless the increase of $274,121 shown by the Illinois Central, the increase of $189,115 by the Chicago & Alton and of $132,197 by the Missouri Kansas & Texas must be ascribed in larger or smaller measure to that cause.

Outside of the roads favorably affected by some special circumstance like this, and outside likewise the Southern States, where some leading systems continue to make notably good returns, the results quite generally disclose a shrinkage in revenues. In some sections of the country, indeed, the losses are of large proportion. For instance, the Great Northern has fallen behind no less than $716,250, the Colorado & Southern $284,657 and the Minneapolis St. Paul & Saulte Ste. Marie $143,416. Even some of the Southern roads have not escaped contraction. Thus, while the Southern Ry. has managed to add $108,428 to its total of last year and the Seaboard Air Line, the Central of Georgia and the Mobile & Ohio also have made fair-sized gains, the Louisville & Nashville reports a decrease of $298,677, the Texas & Pacific a decrease of $102,761 and a few other roads in the South are also distinguished for losses, though in lesser amounts. In the following we show all changes for the separate roads, whether increases or decreases, for amounts in excess of $30,000.

Representing 12 roads in our compilation....$2,419,378

It is to be said with reference to the roads reporting diminished totals the present year that the losses in nearly all cases come after very large gains in the preceding year. As an illustration, the Great Northern, which now has $716,250 decrease, in May last year reported $1,434,461 gain, and the Louisville & Nashville, which now has a loss of $298,677, last year added $880,428 to its previous year's total. And what is true of the separate roads or systems is still more strikingly true of the roads as a whole. In other words, comparison is with very satisfactory totals in 1910. The force of this remark will be the more manifest when it is noted that our early statement for May last year, comprising substantially the same roads as are now represented, recorded an increase of no less than $8,772,771, or 16.98%. Moreover, this followed an increase of $6,320,871, or 14.79%, in May 1909 over 1908. In 1908, of course, when the depression in business which followed the panic was at its height. our early exhibit recorded a heavy loss, the falling off being no less than $15,319,106, or 25.10%. Prior to 1908 there was an almost uninterrupted series of gains extending back to 1896. In the following we furnish a summary of the May aggregates as registered by our early compilations for each year back to 1897.

Note. - We do not include the Mexican roads in any of the years.

Besides the advantage of an extra work day in the month this year, certain of the grain-carrying roads also had an advantage from a larger grain movement. The corner in May wheat at Chicago led to the rushing of extra amounts of wheat to that point, and the sympathetic rise in the quotations for corn and oats tended to increase the deliveries of those cereals too. For the four weeks ending May 27 the deliveries of wheat at the Western primary markets were 11,310,074 bushels the present year, against only 8,586,502 bushels in the same four weeks of 1910, the deliveries of corn were 13,870,155 bushels, against 7,988,207 bushels, and of oats 13,304,389 bushels, against 11,-681,876. Adding barley and rye, the receipts of the five cereals for the four weeks this year were 41,531,506 bushels, against 32,252,503 bushels in 1910 and 31,-693,288 bushels in 1909. The following gives the details of the Western grain movement in our usual

To complete our analysis we furnish the following six-year comparisons of the earnings of the more important roads arranged in groups. The feature to which attention should be drawn is that in the case of many different systems in various parts of the country the 1911 earnings are either only slightly above the 1907 figures or else they are actually below their totals of four years ago-in some cases very much below.

—The Birkbeck Bank of London, suspended on Thursday. The institution experienced a run last November and is said to have been aided at the time by the Bank of England. The withdrawals were reported to have been occasioned by the circulation of rumors connecting the institution with the Charing Cross Bank, which closed its doors in October. The Birkbeck Bank was established in 1851. Its total liabilities are said to amount to $43,380,910. The cables state that, according to the directors, the liabilities exceed the assets by £375,000 (about $1,875,000), while the auditors examining the books place the excess of liabilities over assets at $775,000, or about $3,875,000.

—Postmaster General Hitchcock, it is stated, plans to have at least one thousand postal savings banks in operation by July 1, six months after the inauguration of the system. There have been 150 new depositories named this week, the number being thereby increased to 550. The banks have thus far been confined to cities of the second class, but a trial of the system is to be made in first-class post offices in the larger cities about the first of the coming month. New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Baltimore are expected to be among the more important cities to be designated.

—Nov. 21 to 24 have been fixed as the dates for the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association by the Executive Committee of the New Orleans Clearing-House Association. The time chosen, however, has been made subject to the approval of Secretary F. E. Farnsworth.

—Bankers of Ohio appear to be much exercised over the action of Gov. Harmon in vetoing on the 2d inst. a section of the so-called Hollinger Bill, signed by him on that date. The bill, as we understand it, is intended to correct defects in the Tax Commission Law by requiring all corporations for profit to make certain reports. The section which has been killed by the Governor denied the commission the right to examine the books of banks, trust companies and building and loan associations, and prohibited it from calling upon the banks to disclose the amounts held by depositors for the purpose of listing them for taxation. The veto of this section, as well as the veto of the Johnson Senate Bill No. 8, which, it is stated, had defined bank deposits as credit and not as cash, will, it is contended, work to the disadvantage of the banks. If the Commission should exercise the privilege of directing the County Auditors to list all bank deposits, the "Ohio State Journal" claims that this would at once result in withdrawals of large sums from the Ohio banks and their removal to banks in other States. Besides this, it is pointed out, there would be a conflict between the State and Federal authority, as the national banks would appeal to the Federal Government to prevent the State officials from interference with their business. In his message vetoing the clause (Section 162), the Governor said:

Glaring inequalities in taxation have long caused discontent in the State that has become more general and acute since the commencement of the recent quadrennial appraisement of real estate.

Justice to the owners of real estate required that measures be taken to secure from the owners of other kinds of property their just share of taxes. To accomplish this it is necessary to subject to taxation personal property, moneys, credits, &c., which have heretofore largely escaped.

Among amendments made by the Senate is Section 162, whose effect would be to obstruct laudable work in progress, and that with respect to money on deposit in banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, and financial institutions of all descriptions, and shares in building and loan associations, whether held by borrowers or investors, all of which have long been most notorious for absence from the duplicate.

This would be a clear discrimination in favor of shareholders and depositors and against the owners of other kinds of property, as well as against the public interest. In effect, it would be a practical exemption from taxation in very many cases, and that of property most of which would certainly not appeal strongly for exemption from contributing to the public expenses if authority to grant exemptions existed.

—Gov. Harmon of Ohio has signed a bill, known as the Kennedy measure, giving the State Superintendent of Banks authority to withhold his approval for the organization of a State bank when he considers there is not sufficient neces sity for its establishment.

—A bill extending for a further period of five years the time allotted life insurance companies to dispose of their stock holdings was favorably reported by the Senate Insurance Committee at Albany on the 6th inst. The proposed legislation was offered as a substitute for the Frawley-Hoey bill, introduced several months ago, and which was intended to effect the repeal of that section of the Armstrong Law which requires the companies to divest themselves of such securities within five years from Dec. 31 1906. The substitute bill extends the time another five years, or until Dec. 31 1916.

**The most important particular in which the law is changed under the amended measure is that the tax is made to apply where stocks are "transferred" the same as in the case of actual sales. We quote the following section of the new bill regulating the imposition of the tax, showing in italics the new matter and enclosing in brackets such parts of the old law as will be omitted:

An Act to amend Chapter 62 of the laws of 1909, entitled "An Act in relation to taxation, constituting Chapter 60 of the Consolidated Laws," in relation to the tax imposed on transfers of stock.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and As-

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and As sembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. Section 270 of Chapter 62 of the Laws of 1909, entitled "An Act in relation to taxation, constituting Chapter 60 of the Consolidated Laws," as amended by Chapter 38 of the Laws of 1910, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 270. Amount of tax. There is hereby imposed and there shall immediately accrue and be collected a tax, as herein provided, on all sales, or agreements to sell, or memoranda of sales of stock, [or] and upon any and all deliveries or transfers of shares or certificates of stock, in any domestic or foreign association, company or corporation, made after the first day of June, 1905, whether made upon or shown by the books of the association, company or corporation, or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of [transfer or] sale or transfer, whether [entitling the holder in any manner to the benefit of such stock] intermediate or final, and whether investing the holder with the beneficial interest in or legal title to said stock or merely with the posany purpose, or to secure money, or the future transfer of any stock, on each hundred dollars of face value or fraction thereof, two cents. It is not intended by this Act to impose a tax upon an agreement evidencing the deposit of stock certificates as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which stock certificates are not actually sold, nor upon such stock certificates so deposited. ment of such tax shall be denoted by an adhesive stamp or stamps affixed as follows: In the case of sale, or transfer, where the evidence of [transfer] the transaction is shown only by the books of the association, company or corporation, the stamp shall be placed upon such books; and where the [change of ownership] transaction is effected by the delivery or transfer of a certificate the stamp shall be placed upon the certificate; and in cases of an agreement to sell, or where the [transfer] sale is effected by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank, there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp provided for by this article shall be affixed; and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale and the matter or thing to which it refers, and no further tax is hereby imposed upon the delivery of the certificate of stock, or upon the actual issue of a new certificate when the original certificate of stock is accompanied by the duly stamped memorandum of sale.

A material change in the section covering the cancellation of the stamps has also been made. Where heretofore the law had held it to be a misdemeanor for a person to fraudulently make use of a stamp without effectually canceling the same, the amendment strikes out the word "fraudulently", so that the law as proposed reads: "If any person makes use of an adhesive stamp to denote the payment of the tax imposed by this article, without so effectually canceling the same, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $500 or be imprisoned for not less than six months, or both, in the discretion of the Court." A further amendment extends the time in which the books or accounts of brokerage houses recording sales or transfers shall remain accessible to the State Comptroller for examination from three months to six months. There is also a provision in the new law under which it is required that:

Every association, company or corporation shall keep or cause to be kept a transfer ledger, register or stock-certificate book, containing a complete and true entry and record of all sales or transfers of shares or certificates of its stock made upon its books. It shall also retain and keep all surrendered or canceled shares or certificates of its stock and all memoranda relating to the sale or transfer of any thereof; and all such transfer ledgers, registers or stock certificate books and surrendered or canceled shares or certificates of stock and memoranda relating to the sale or transfer of its stock shall at all times between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and three o'clock in the afternoon, except Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, be open to examination by the Comptroller.

The Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court on the 2d inst. unanimously affirmed the decision of Justice Newburger in setting aside last February the verdict of $39,910 previously directed in favor of the New York Cotton Exchange house of Springs & Co. in the action brought by the latter against the Hanover National Bank. In setting aside the original verdict, Justice Newburger granted the motion for a new trial, and the Appellate Division likewise upholds his action in that respect. As stated in previous references to the matter (Dec. 24 1910 and Feb. 4), the suit grows out of the failure of Knight, Yancey & Co. of Birmingham, Ala., and concerns the collection of a draft negotiated by that firm, attached to what purported to be a bill of lading issued by a railroad company, covering a supposed consignment of cotton by the Alabama firm to Springs & Co. The draft, with the bill of lading attached, was deposited with the first National Bank of Decatur, Ala., and endorsed over to the Hanover National Bank for collection. After the payment of the money to the Hanover by Springs & Co., the bill of lading was found to be fraudulent, and the firm, having failed to receive the cotton, sought the repayment from the Hanover of the amount represented by the draft. Justice Newburger, in deciding in favor of the bank in February, maintained that "the defendant's authority was simply to collect the amount of the draft; it did not guarantee the validity of the collateral or that the cotton would be delivered." In sustaining the findings of Justice Newburger, the Appellate Division, speaking by Justice McLaughlin, said in part: (as quoted in the "Journal of Commerce"):

Upon the foregoing facts, I am clearly of the opinion that the plaintiffs were not entitled to recover. The draft was concededly drawn by Knight, Yancey & Co. The amount was correct, and under the previous arrangement with Knight, Yancey & Co. the plaintiffs accepted and paid it. It was not a payment under a mistake of fact. Neither the Decatur Bank nor the Hanover Bank endorsed or in any way stamped the bills of lading which were drawn to the order of Knight, Yancey & Co. and endorsed by the bank. The draft itself contained no reference to the bills of lading, and it is not claimed either the Decatur Bank or the defendant had any knowledge that the bills of lading were not genuine, or that either bank made any representation upon the subject to induce the plaintiffs to make the payment. The Decatur Bank received the draft in the usual course of business as a bank of discount, and paid the full amount of it, less the exchange to Knight, Yancey & Co., and it is not even suggested that any act of it or the defendant (except the endorsement of the draft in the usual course of business) operated to the prejudice of the plaintiffs or prevented them from making an earlier discovery of the forgeries; on the contrary, it appears that Knight, Yancey & Co. had arranged with the plaintiffs to accept the draft, and that they did accept it upon the representation of Knight, Yancey & Co. that the cotton mentioned in the bills of lading had been shipped to their firm for sale under the previous arrangement.

It may well be that the bills of lading gave some credit to the draft beyond what was created by the supposed pecuniary standing of Knight, Yancey & Co., but they were not a part of the draft, were not referred to in it or in the acceptance, and so far as the plaintiffs were concerned, they were nothing more or less than collateral security accompanying the draft. It was for the plaintiff alone to determine, before they accepted the draft, the validity and value of such security. There was no obligation upon either the Decatur Bank or the defendant to do this. The Decatur Bank in in its counting the draft, and the defendant in presenting it for payment, did not guarantee the genuineness of the bills of lading attached to it as collateral security.

There is another view which, it seems to me, prevents the plaintiffs from recovering. The defendant, in presenting the draft for payment, acted as the agent of the Decatur Bank, which was a bona fide holder for value. When the defendant received payment of the draft, it had no knowledge that the bills of lading attached were spurious, or that the bills did not represent actual cotton delivered. Having received the payment and paid the same over to the Decatur Bank before it had any knowledge that the bills of lading were spurious, freed it from liability. (Bank of America vs. Waydell, 187 N. Y., 115; National Park Bank vs. Seaboard Bank, 114 N. Y.; 28.)

If the foregoing views be correct, then it follows that the Court did not err in setting aside the verdict in favor of the plaintiffs and granting a new trial, because on the facts presented a verdict should have been directed for the defendant. The order appealed from, therfcore, is affirmed, with costs and disbursements.

—James B. McDougal, has declined the offer made to him by the New York Clearing House Association to take charge of the new department under which a system for the examination of members is to be established. Mr. McDougal has been Chief Examiner of the Chicago Clearing House, since the inauguration of supervision by that body in 1906.

In addition to the seven trust companies whose application for membership in the New York Clearing House Association was approved on May 25, eight other companies were admitted on the 5th inst. Those upon which favorable action was taken this week are the Title Guarantee & Trust Co., the Mercantile Trust Co., the Lawyers' Title Insurance & Trust Co., the Standard Trust Co., the New York Trust Co., the Lincoln Trust Co., of Manhattan and the Peoples' Trust and Franklin Trust companies of Brooklyn Borough. seven whose applications had previously been passed upon are the Manhattan Trust Co., the Bankers Trust Co., the Astor Trust Co., the Guaranty Trust Co., the Columbia Trust Co., the United States Mortgage & Trust Co. and the Brooklyn Trust Co. One other institution, the Fidelity Trust Co., has been accepted provisionally, pending the completion of the arrangements for increasing its capital to $1,000,000. It is expected that the trust companies will begin to clear through the Association on Monday.

-The introduction of clearing-house examinations in all the reserve cities is, according to report, being urged by Comptroller of the Currency Lawrence O. Murray. In a number of these cities the plan has for some time been successfully operated, and marked improvement has occurred in banking conditions where this reinforcement to the supervision of the institutions has been adopted. Chicago was the first city to witness the establishment of this system of examination, and it was through William T. Fenton, Vice-President of the National Bank of the Republic of Chicago, that its inauguration was brought about. The movement followed the failure in 1905 of the Chicago National Bank and its two affiliated institutions, and in Jan. 1906 the Chicago Clearing House approved Mr. Fenton's efforts in this direction, in the adoption of a resolution providing for regular examinations of the banks in the Association.

An announcement from the New York Bankers' Association with regard to the program arranged for its coming annual meeting on the 22d and 23d inst. states that emphasis will be given at the business sessions to the question of currency reform, and especially as the problem relates to the various classes of banking institutions. Serious consideration is to be given the plan proposed by the Currency Commission of the American Bankers' Association, which proposes to extend to the trust companies, State banks and savings banks the privileges of the Aldrich plan. William C. Poillon, President of the Mercantile Trust Co. of New York, will speak on "The Proposed Participation of Trust Companies in the National Reserve Association," and discussions of the plan as related to national and State banks, trust companies and savings banks are mapped out. Talbert, Vice-President of the National City Bank of New York, will address the meeting on "Progress in Banking." convention will take place at the Oriental Hotel, Manhattan Beach, and at the annual banquet, on the evening of the 22d, President Taft, Martin W. Littleton, Charles F. Moore and Mgr. Edward W. McCarty will be the guests. A trip around Manhattan Island by steamer is planned for the afternoon of the 22d, while on the 23d the social attractions will consist of an aeroplane flight, a trip through Luna Park, and, in the evening illuminations, pyrotechnics, music and dancing at the hotel. The Oriental and Manhattan Beach hotels have been reserved for the association and its guests during the convention. William J. Henry of 11 Pine St., New York, is Secretary of the Association. The company will then have $1,000,000 of capital and $1,130,000 of surplus. It is expected that August Heckscher will be succeeded in the presidency by Clark Williams.

In response to the call of June 7th, the company reports deposits of $144,724,000, an increase of $11,000,000 since the last call, Feb. 28 1911. The total resources are in excess of $175,000,000. On Wednesday the directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of 8% on the $5,000,000 capital.

—J. Fred. Behre has been elected a trustee of the Nassau Trust Co. of Brooklyn Borough, succeeding Jost Moller, who resigns, owing to ill-health.

Charles H. Bissikummer, Vice-President and Secretary of the Albany Trust Co., of Albany, N. Y., was made First Vice-President and Acting President at a meeting of the directors on the 2nd inst. As acting head of the company, Mr. Bissikummer will fill the vacancy created through the resignation of George C. Van Tuyl Jr., with the latter's appointment as State Superintendent of Banks. Mr. Bissikummer has been connected with the institution since its organization in 1900. He was formerly identified with civic affairs and had been Deputy Chamberlain and Deputy City Comptroller. The arrangements for the union were announced early in 1910, but the consummation of the proceedings was delayed until the completion of the new banking quarters. The merger is effected under the name of the Union & New Haven Trust Co. The enlarged institution has combined capital, surplus and profits of over a million dollars, the capital being $650,000 and the surplus and profits $399,202. Arthur B. Sederquist was also, the Boston "Transcript" states, acquitted on the same two counts; on the other fifty counts against Sederquist, John E. Barry and D. Eustace Bigelow, the jury was unable to reach an agreement, and was discharged on the 4th inst. The indictments, it is stated, charged the larceny of about $100,000 from the firm's customers in stock transactions. The trial began in March and lasted thirteen weeks.

—The German-American Trust Co. of Indianapolis, whose capital of $400,000 was only half paid, has announced that full payment of the capital has been provided through a dividend of 100% out of accumulated earnings. It is also proposed to enlarge the capital by an additional $100,000, making it $500,000. The new issue of 1,000 shares will be disposed of at $150 per share, and when the half-million-dollar capital becomes effective, the surplus will stand at $50,000.

—At a meeting on the 1st inst. the stockholders of the Detroit Trust Co. of Detroit, Mich., ratified the proposition recommended by the directors to increase the capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000. Under the plan proposed, the new stock is offered at par to shareholders of record May 2. The sum of $500,000 has been transferred from the undivided profits account to surplus, making the latter $1,000,000.

—The Dime Savings Bank of Detroit also purposes to increase its capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000. Action on the question will be taken by the stockholders on June 15. The premium will serve to bring the surplus and undivided profits up to approximately $500,000.

—The stockholders and directors of the Michigan Savings & Loan Association have been directed by Judge Henry H. Swan of the U. S. District Court at Detroit to pay to Receiver Ralph L. Aldrich a total of $958,134. Mr. Aldrich was appointed receiver in response to a petition in bankruptcy filed against the concern on April 1 1901, and alleged improper accountings are said to have subsequently been discovered by him. The following, it is stated, are ordered to pay an aggregate of $445,689 "on account of and by reason of their unlawful acts, negligence and violations of duty" as directors of the company: John E. Clark, President; John B. Corliss, Attorney; Butler Ives, Treasurer; Thomas E. Hancock, Vice-President, and F. B. Wemple. -The Chicago "Record-Herald" of May 21 announces a special meeting on June 20 of the stockholders of the Union Trust Co. of Chicago to vote on a proposition to consolidate the institution with a recently formed organization known as the Union Trust Association. The purpose of the proceedings, it is stated, is to enable the company to enlarge its directorate in the future, should this be deemed advisable. It is pointed out that under the laws of Illinois a banking institution may organize with as large or as small a directorate as it chooses, but when once organized, the board may not be increased beyond the maximum or decreased below the minimum stipulated. The Union Trust Co. has ten directors and is limited to eleven. The Union Trust Association, accordingly, has been formed among the employees of the Union Trust Co. and its by-laws provide for a maximum of twentyone directors. It is proposed to consolidate the Union Trust Co. and the Union Trust Association, adopting for the consolidated institution the by-laws of the Association, but continuing under the name of the Union Trust Co.

Lorimer was made Secretary.

The incorporation of the proposed organization was applied for by the members of the firm, namely Moses E., Henry E., and James E. Greenebaum. Julius Rosenwald, President of Sears, Roebuck & Co., will, it is understood, be associated with Messrs. Greenbaum as one of the principal stockholders in the prospective company.

-A. V. Hunter has been elected President of the First National Bank of Denver, Colo., succeeding the late D. H. Moffat. Thomas Keely continues as Vice-President of the institution, and F. G. Moffat, who has been Cashier, also becomes a Vice-President. Changes in the directorate which follow the recent acquisition of a controlling interest in the bank by Hayden, Stone & Co., include the election to the board of Charles Hayden and J. A. Hayes and the new executive, A. V. Hunter. The other members who continue on the board are Messrs. Keely and F. G. Moffat, Gerald Hughes, Charles Haughwout, J. C. Houston and C. M. MacNeill. President Hunter is also President of the Carbonate National Bank of Leadville, Colo., and Mr. Hayes, one of the new directors, is President of the First National Bank of Colorado

-In an address before the Kansas Bankers' Association at its annual session on May 24 and 25, State Bank Commissioner J. N. Dolley advocated an enlargement of the National Monetary Commission's plans for currency reform so as to permit the National Reserve Association to embrace within its scope all banks operating under State as well as national charters.

-Indorsement is given to the tentative Aldrich plan of currency reform, as modified by the Currency Commission of the American Bankers' Association, in a resolution adopted during the session of the Tennessee Bankers' Association on May 29 and 30. The resolution was offered by F. O. Watts, President of the First National Bank of Nashville, and we quote the same herewith:

Whereas, our banking and currency laws are known to be wholly inadequte to serve the country in times of stress or evel during crop movements and periods of unusual activity, and whereas the Government of the United States has an able and non-partisan commission making a special study of the subject for three years, and the American Bankers' Association has a special commission composed of bankers representing every section of the country and every condition of banking; and whereas the Chairman of the National Monetary Commission, the Honorable Nelson W. Aldrich, has presented a tentative plan for reform providing for the creation of a National Reserve Association; and, whereas, the Currency Commission of the American Bankers' Association has approved the said plan with certain modifications providing, among other things, that the plan shall be open alike to national, State and savings banks and trust companies; therefore,

Be it resolved, That the Tennessee Bankers' Association approve the proosed plan so modified and extended and promise our hearty support to the end that it may become a law.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Senators and Representatives in Congress from Tennessee and the National Monetary Commission.

The defeat of the bill to regulate State banking in Tennessee was one of the important topics discussed at the meeting. The State is one of the few without a law governing banking operations. The Legislative Committee of the Association, we learn from the Nashville "Banner," made a report to the effect that although special efforts had been put forth by it to secure the passage of the bill, these efforts failed because of the political differences that divide the General Assembly. A resolution was proposed approving the pending bill as the most equitable and reasonable which could be adopted at the present time. It was argued, however, that this might tie the committee to the old bill, whereas some of its features are not approved by many of the bankers. It was finally decided that, for the purpose of agreeing on some course of action during the year, the original committee be continued, that three additional members be added from the opposing element, and that the Committee elect members to fill vacancies should they

-A verdict acquitting Carter R. Bishop, formerly Cashier of the Appomattox Trust Co. of Petersburg, Va., of the alleged larceny of $20,685 through false entries in the bank's books in October 1908, was returned by the jury on May 5. The company, it is reported, in the Richmond "Dispatch," went out of business a year ago and was succeeded by the American Bank & Trust Co., which took over its affairs and assumed its liabilities.

-T. S. Anderson, formerly President of the defunct Daviess County Bank & Trust Co. of Owensboro, Ky., who was convicted in May 1910 on a charge of swearing to a false statement of the condition of the institution and sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment, was paroled on May 30

-Charles G. Goodrich, the esteemed Cashier of the Georgia Railroad Bank of Augusta, Ga., died suddenly, while engrossed in his duties at the bank on the 1st inst. His death occurred shortly after he had eaten his lunch in the early afternoon, and was believed to have been due to acute indigestion or apoplexy. Mr. Goodrich was one of the best known bankers in the State. Besides serving the bank as Cashier since its organization in 1892 he had been Cashier of the Georgia Railroad & Banking Co. from 1881 until the time of his death. Mr. Goodrich was born in Augusta in He served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, and at its close entered the mercantile business. He was Treasurer of Paine College, President of the Board of Trustee of the Academy of Richmond County, a trustee of the Medical College, a member of the Board of Managers of the Augusta Orphan Asylum and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Augusta Free School.

Rufus H. Brown, Assistant Cashier of the Georgia Railroad Bank since November 1903, has been elected Cashier of both the bank and of the Georgia Railroad & Banking Co. He also takes Mr. Goodrich's place as a director of the Georgia Railroad Bank.

-The remarks of J. T. Scott, of the First National Bank of Houston, made at the recent Convention of the Texas Bankers' Association, have been brought together in pamphlet form. An explanation of the Aldrich plan of currency reform was offered in Mr. Scott's address.

Lewis, Chairman of the Board; Frank W. Baker and J. H. Bloedel, Vice-Presidents; C. B. West and W. B. Shoemaker, Assistant Cashiers. The office of Cashier remains unfilled for the present. Messrs. Lewis, Baker and Shoemaker were, respectively, President, Vice-President and Cashier of the institution before its conversion. Under the plans for its conversion the capital of the bank becomes $500,000.

Mr. Inouye had formerly been managing Superintendent of the New York agency of the Bank of Japan.

Monetary Commercial English Pews

[From our own correspondent.]

London, Saturday, June 3 1911.

Nearly a million sterling in gold was offered in the open market here on Monday. About a quarter of the sum was taken by the trade and by India, and a considerable part of the remainder has already been sent into the Bank of England, while it is expected that what is left will go in also. As there is no foreign demand for gold, the expectation is that the Bank will receive the larger part of what offers in the market for several weeks to come; and, therefore, that it will grow unusually strong. Though the preparations for the Whitsuntide holidays had already begun, Thursday's return of the Bank of England showed that the gold held by the Bank increased very nearly three-quarters of a million sterling, and that the total stock of gold held slightly exceeded 39 millions sterling. Furthermore, the reserve stood at but little under 29 millions sterling. It looks highly probable, therefore, in spite of holiday-making, that the stock of gold will very soon exceed 40 millions sterling, and the reserve will exceed 30 millions sterling.

In addition to the gold received from South Africa a considerable amount has been received from Paris. The exact amount it is not possible to state. On Wednesday, for example, £312,000 was sent in, but the larger part of this was really South African gold which had not been otherwise disposed of, and therefore was sent into the Bank, one large house sending nearly £200,000. It seems safe to say, consequently, that in a very short time the gold held will exceed 40 millions sterling. On Thursday and Friday a further quarter of a million went into the Bank. It is believed by those in a position to be well informed that the remittances from Paris are now ended. They have become necessary only because of the immense quantities of food-stuffs which France has had to buy in consequence of last year's bad harvests. On the other hand, one of the great Indian demands for gold is satisfied. There is every week an Indian demand for bar gold amounting on an average to about £200,000 a week. That goes on with very little variation, whether times are good or bad. But there is another demand which is sometimes very large and sometimes very small, according as Indian trade is or is not active. For several months there has been an exceedingly strong trade demand, satisfied mainly from Egypt. It is estimated that of the gold it obtained from London and Paris, Egypt has parted with about 6½ millions sterling to India. India also took some gold direct from Paris. It took a little gold direct from London, and it took a larger amount than in either of those two cases from Australia. That trade demand is satisfied for the present—so much so, indeed, that the Indian banks have refused this week gold offered by the Egyptian banks at par. The Presidency banks of Bombay and Calcutta on Thursday reduced their rates to 5%. As India will not offer a satisfactory price, the gold that has become superabundant in Egypt is certain to be sent back to London. In fact, there have been no fewer than two rises in th possible to say how much will be sent back. The best opinion is that the surplus will not exceed a million sterling.

Business upon the Stock Exchange, in spite of the cheapening and abundance of money and the general favorable conditions, has been very stagnant. This is due mainly to the fact that the well-to-do public is giving itself up entirely to amusement. Perhaps never before have there been so many people in London with money to spend, and they are spending lavishly on all sorts of amusements, but they are giving no attention to the Stock Exchange. Moreover, this was Derby week at Epsom, a great race festival for Londoners, made specially popular this year because it was attended by the new King and Queen. Furthermore, the Stock Exchange is closed to-day and Monday will be Bank holiday. The cut in steel, too, has checked speculation, and so, of

The India Council offered for tender on Wednesday 80 lacs of its bills and the applications exceeded 776½ lacs at prices ranging from 1s. 3 15-16d. to 1s. 4d. per rupee. Applicants for bills at 1s. 3 31-32d. and for telegraphic transfers at 1s. 4d. per rupee were allotted 14% of the amounts applied for. Applicants for bills at 1s. 4d. were allotted in full. The amount to be offered for tender next Wednesday will be reduced to 60 lacs.

Messrs. Pixley & Abell write as follows under date of

June 1:

GOLD.—Arrivals this week in the open market were £1,057,000, for which again there has been no competition, and after supplying India with £197,000 the Bank of England is expected to secure nearly£800,000 Paris has sent £724,000 during the week, of which £266,000 has been in bars. The total received from that quarter during the last eight days has been £814,000, and these shipments have been successful in putting the cheque down from 25.32½ to 25.30. In addition to arrivals from France, the Bank since our last has received £30,000 from Australia and £577,000 in bar gold, while there have been no withdrawals. In view of the fact that Indian exchange is now under 1s. 4d., thus rendering gold shipments to that quarter unprofitable, any gold which may leave Egypt or Australia in the future will probably come to the London market. Next week £633,000 is due from South Africa and £114,000 from India. Arrivals—South Africa, £1,010,000; West Africa, £30,000; West Indies, £17,000; total, £1,057,000. Shipments—Bombay, £214,000.

SILVER.—There are no new features to report in sliver and the market is still an inactive one. After dropping 1-16d. for two days to 24½d., the price recovered again to 24 9-16d., the same price as last week. The support has come mainly from China, but the buying has been small and has been easily filled out of daily supplies. The silk season is expected to begin in a fortnight's time. The daily offtake in the bazaars continues to be satisfactory. Stocks in Bombay are down by 600 bars, and in addition £53,000 received from England has gone into consumption, but this has not led to their buying in this market except to a very moderate extent. Prospects for the monsoon are reported to be quite favorable. The demand for exchange on India has fallen off rapidly and Council bills went fully 1-16d. lower than last week. The price in India is Rs. 62 13-16d. per 100 tolahs. Arrivals—New York, £220,000; South America, £7,000; total, £227,000. Shipments—Port Said, £3,000; Madras, £2,500; Bombay, £2

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—The advance in security values noted last week has been very generally maintained, although the volume of business has been smaller. In a few cases, for special and well-understood reasons, stocks have shown a tendency to weakness, but as an offset to this, and noted somewhat in detail below, several issues have sold at the highest prices of the year and the list issues have sold at the highest prices of the year and the list as a whole has been strong.

The prominent event of the week from a market point of view was the Government crop report, issued Thursday. This indicates, as was expected, a less favorable condition of winter wheat than the May 1st report, but it was exceptionally favorable as to spring wheat and forecasts the largest yield of the entire crop ever harvested.

Reports of railway earnings are of a decidedly mixed character, but on the whole show an unsatisfactory state of general traffic. Some of the Western roads are doing fairly well, but those depending largely on the iron and steel industry but those depending largely on the iron and steel industry and upon the coal output for business are making a poor showing. Several prominent Wes ern systems will, of course, profit largely, both directly and indirectly, if present crop prospects are realized. It is hoped, moreover, that the proceeds of recent new bond issues will encourage railway managers to resume purchases of rolling stock and equipment and will lead to a revival of activity in repair shops and track maintenance, all of which would tend to increase the volume of traffic. But whether any of these hopes are realized or not, it would seem that any change in railroad affairs, whenever it comes, will be for the better.

Another noteworthy event of the week has been a decline

Another noteworthy event of the week has been a decline in foreign exchange rates to the point where gold could be imported at a profit, and it is reported that shipments of gold from Paris to New York would have been arranged for had not the Bank of France discouraged such a movement.

The open market rate for call loans at the Stock Exchange during the week on stock and bond collateral has ranged from 2 to  $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ . To-day's rates on call were  $2\frac{1}{4}$ @ $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ . Commercial paper quoted at  $3\frac{1}{2}$ @ $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  for 60 to 90-day endorsements,  $3\frac{3}{4}$ @4% for prime 4 to 6 months' single names and  $4\frac{1}{4}$ @5% for good single names.

The Bank of England weekly statement on Thursday showed a decrease in bullion of £250,654 and the percentage of reserve to liabilities was 52.55, against 51.91 last week.

of reserve to liabilities was 52.55, against 51.91 last week. The rate of discount remains unchanged at 3%, as fixed March 9. The Bank of France shows a decrease of 1,350,000 francs gold and an increase of 4,225,000 francs silver.

Note.—The Clearing House now issues a statement weekly showing the actual condition of the banks on Saturday morning as well as the above averages. These figures, together with the returns of the separate banks, also the summary issued by the State Banking Department, giving the condition of State banks and trust companies not reporting to the Clearing House, appear on the second page preceding.

Foreign Exchange.—A steady output of security bills kept demand sterling below 4 86 throughout the week. The close to-day was fairly steady, with a good inquiry for remittance by next week's steamer.

State and Railroad Bonds.—Sales of State bonds at the Board are limited to $128,000 Virginia 6s, deferred trust rects., at 56 to 58½, and $3,000 New York Canal 4s at 106¼.

The market for railway and industrial bonds has been active and generally steady. A few issues have been notably strong, including the Eries, Wabash-Pitts. Term. 1st trust cert. and American Tobacco 4s. These have advanced from 2 to 7 points. Third Ave. con. 4s have been in request to-day and are nearly 2 points higher than last week. Several issues close without net change and 5 or 6 are fractionally lower. tionally lower.

United States Bonds .- Sales of Government bonds at the Board include $10,000 Panama Canal 2s. 1936, at 100½ and $3,000 4s, reg., at 114. The following are the daily closing quotations; for yearly range see third page following.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—With very little change from day to day, the tone of the stock market has continued strong throughout the week. A few issues have made a noteworthy advance and a larger number have established a new high record for the year; but in most cases the range covered has been a narrow one.

Great Northern continued the upward movement noted last week until it reached 140, an advance of nearly 12 points since the new bond issue was announced. During the same time Northern Pacific showed a gain of over 10 points and Canadian Pacific at 242¼ and St. Paul above 129 were from 10 to over 12 points above their recent selling prices.

On the other hand Denver & Rio Drande declined, on uncertainty as to the maintenance of its dividend rate, the preferred dropping 5½ points, and Reading, Lehigh Valley and some of the industrial list showed a tendency to weakness. Of the latter group Underwood Typewriter has been an erratic feature, covering a range of 11 points, within the week, and closing with a net net gain of 9½. The Steel issues, General Electric and Smelting & Refining are all fractionally lower than last week.

For daily volume of business see page 1554.

RAILROAD GROSS EARNINGS.

The following table shows the gross earnings of every STEAM railroad from which regular weekly or monthly returns can be obtained. The first two columns of figures give the gross earnings for the latest week or month, and the last two columns the earnings for the period from July 1 to and including such latest week or month. We add a supplementary statement to show the fiscal year totals of those roads whose fiscal year does not begin with July, but covers some other period. The returns of the electric railways are brought together separately on a subsequent page.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Annual Reports.—An index to annual reports of steam railroads, street railways and miscellaneous companies which have been published during the preceding month will be given on the last Saturday of each month. This index will not include reports in the issue of the "Chronicle" in which it is published. The latest index will be found in the issue of May 27. The next will appear in that of June 24.

Buffalo & Susquehanna Railway and Railroad.

(Receiver's Report for Nine Months ending March 31 1911.) Receiver H. I. Miller, Buffalo, N. Y., April 29 1911, wrote to the protective committee for the railway company's  $4\frac{1}{2}\%$

gold bonds substantially as follows:

gold bonds substantially as follows:

Earnings.—From July 1 1910 to March 31 1911 the net income from operation of the respective properties was: Railway (including railroad from July 1 to 23), $180,243; Railroad from July 24 to March 31, $93,888. The foregoing amounts are after payment by the railway of $21,453 and by the railroad of $9,517 as interest on receivers' certificates issued, to take care of prior obligations and for rehabilitation.

The earnings of the railroad do not include the interest paid by the two coal companies to the trustee of the 4% bonds as interest on the mortgages of the coal companies pledged as collateral to those bonds. It should be understood, however, that the interest received on said mortgages is to be added to theearnings from operations to determine the available net income of the railroad. (See "Recever's Certificates" below.)

Going to make up the results for the period are the net receipts by the railway of $281,040 and net payments by the railroad of $112,657 for hire of equipment. The explanation is, of course, that the railway is overequipped with locomotives and freight cars, and the railroad under-equipped, the latter borrowing both from the railway and from other companies.

The earnings for the month of March were probably greater than they will be for subsequent months, the coal traffic in that month being large, and a considerable slump having occurred in it since then.

Improvements.—The roadway and track are in good condition, and on the railroad only the normal renewals of rails and ties are not yet required. In the course of two or three years heavy renewals of ties will be necessary. Practically all the bridges on both properties will have to be re-painted this season.

Of the locomotives owned, 44 belong to the railroad and 33 to the railway, the latter being the more modern; there are in serviceable condition at this time, railroad 30, railway 25. All of the steel car equipment is badly rusted and will require painting at a cost of, railway $18,248, railroa

Inside of $10,000. Aiready the benefit is shown in the increase of merchandise traffic. The station is reached under a satisfactory agreement over the tracks of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway Co. Receiver's Certificates.—Early in the receivership of the railway $11,000 receiver's certificates were issued to provide for equipment trust obligations ($177,025), taxes, wages, track rentals, terminal facilities, balances due other railways, and other preferred claims. These certificates mature July 1 1911, and it is proposed to issue $500,000 in their place, while also taking eare of the equipment trust obligations up to and including Aug. 1 1911. In this way, with $500,000 certificates out, we will have devoted of the proceeds therefrom the sum of $486,150 in protecting equipment obligations. It is also thought probable that the similar maturity of Oct. 1 1911 can be protected, which will take us over to the first of the year, so far as this class of the indebtedness is concerned. We also expect to pay certain "prior" material and supply claims, as well as the interest and the $11,000 principal of the certificates. There is no reason to believe that any additional certificates will be needed.

There are outstanding $255,000 railroad receiver's certificates, due Aug. 11911. These were issued to pay taxes and track rentals defaulted by the railway, as lessee, and for the restoration of the property to a workable condition. There is on deposit with the trustee of the railroad 4 $109,800 nt. paid over to it on the mortgages [aggregating $3,000,000.—Ed]. of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Coal & Coke Co. and the Powhatan Coal & Coke Co., with this sum we propose to take up part of the receiver's certificates, issuing new certificates for the balance.

Outlook.—On Feb. 10 1911 the arrangement entered into with the Pittsburgh Shawmut & Northern RR, for the handling of our traffic between Weedville and Belvidere because of the poor condition of the Buffalo & Susq. power and the heavy grades, was discontinued. Since t

President Ambrose Monell says in substance:

President Ambrose Monell says in substance:

The payment of four quarterly divs. of 1 ½% each on the pref. stock was authorized by the board of directors out of the surplus earnings of the fiscal year, as well as three quarterly divs. on the common stock, aggregating 4 ½%, and one quar. div. of 2 ½%, making a distribution of 7% on this class of stock. Besides these quarterly distributions there was paid the 25% dividend referred to in the Treasurer's report.

The policy of accumulating the company's bonds to meet future sinking fund requirements is being continued. On March 31 1911 the company held in the treasury bonds of the par value of $633.000 [while an additional $1,282.000 had been canceled by the sinking fund.—Ed.]

The demand for the company's products for the fiscal year just closed was the largest in the company's history, indicating that the increase of 1909 over previous years was well grounded. The growth of the motor vehicle business, both for pleasure and transportation, and the wise polley of the makers to use a superior grade of steel, has had an important bearing upon these results. This transportation business, we believe, has a vast field for further expansion. Experience has proved that the best available material is the cheapest type of construction for efficient service.

We are still developing the Monel metal business: satisfactory arrangements have been made to supply the trade with castings, rods and sheets.

We are continuing our policy of plant improvement and development at Copper Cliff upon every possible opportunity. During the past year the management has shown some marked results in this line, having installed a 70-ton basic converter, replacing three of the smaller acid converters. The economy has been so great that we are installing 3 more basic converters, which will result in the abandonment of the old practice, and will effect a very large saving. In addition to this we are installing a reverberatory furnace plant for the utilizations of the fines produced in our mining o

Statement by Treasurer James L. Ashley.

F During the last fiscal year the common stock was increased by 26,700 shares, so that there is now outstanding $11,582,626 thereof out of a total authorized amount of $12,000,000. This increase was issued at par to both pref. and common stockholders to the extent of 15% of their then holdings, following a 25% common stock cash disbursement of the accumulated undivided earnings belonging to the common stock.

The profits are computed on the sales actually made to customers, and all inventories are taken at cost. Finished material and material in process include no inter-company profits.

Pres. John D. Ryan, June 1 1911, wrote in substance:

Anaconda Copper Mining Co.—Full details of operations of the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. The Year 1910 are given in the report of that company (V. 92, p. 1370). The Anaconda Copper Mining Co. has acquired all of the properties of the mining companies, lumber companies and coal companies doing business in Montana and Wyoming in which your company had any interest. The economies aiready effected and those about to be put into effect warrant fully the estimates of the engineers made at the time of consolidation of the properties and they have placed your company in a stronger position than it has heretofore held.

The Anaconda Copper Mining Co. offered your company in payment for the properties transferred to it by the Original Consolidated Mining Co., the Clark Montana Realty Co. and the Colusa-Parrot Mining & Smelting Co.,

112,500 shares of its stock (par $25 a share—total par value $2,812,500) and this offer was accepted. The stock has been set aside, but not delivered; waiting for certain details of transfer to be completed. (V. 92, p. 1370.)

(Report for Fiscal Year ending Dec. 31 1910.)

President John D. Ryan, New York, June 1 1911, says in substance (compare Amalgamated Copper Co. above):

Substance (compare Amalgamated Copper Co. above):

The Tooele plant at International, Utah, was not completed and put into operation until the latter part of July, so that we had but five months of operation at this plant to the close of the year. Up to Dec. 31 1910, moreover, the plant was not able to run at full capacity, owing to the shortage in ores from the mines of the Utah Consolidated Mining Co., our principal shipper. Since the first of the current year shipments from the Utah Consolidated Mining Co. and other shippers have gradually increased our tonnage, and by Dec. 31 we hope the plant will be operating to its full capacity.

Work on the erection of a lead smelting plant with a capacity of 500 tons a day is well under way, and the end of the current year should see the plant in operation to its full capacity. Before authorizing the building of the plant, your directors entered into contracts for the purchase of lead-silver ores which will insure its full operation.

It will also be necessary to construct a lead refinery, and plans for such silver ores which will insure its full operation.

It will also be necessary to construct a lead refinery, and plans for such an installation at the Raritan Copper Works at Perth Amboy, N. J., are now being prepared. The amount to be expended in the erection of the lead-smelting furnaces at International and the refinery at Perth Amboy, as at present proposed, will be provided for out of cash on hand and no additional stock issue will be made for the purpose.

Owing to the curtailment at the principal mines shipping their product to the refinery, the Raritan Copper Works were at no time during the year operated at full capacity, and in consequence the earnings from the refinery end of the business have shown a decrease. Several important refining contracts have since been entered into, consequently the earnings for this year should be increased from this source irrespective of any additional tonnage from old contracts which might accrue from a betterment of conditions in the copper market. The Raritan plant has been kept at a high state of efficiency, and a liberal amount has been deducted from the year's earnings for depreciation.

Statement by General Manager E. P. Mathewson.

The tons of original materials reduced for the five months ending Dec. 31
1910 were 63,386.31. The copper produced and shipped aggregated 2,431, 317 lbs.; sliver in copper buillon shipped, 87,153 ozs.; gold, 3,930 ozs.

The construction was completed within the estimated cost and within the time specified. The machinery throughout has proved to be fully equal tc our expectations.

The stack and flue were designed for five reverberatory furnaces, besides the converter gases; but on account of shortage of ore we have only been enabled to run three reverberatories; consequently the draft has not been of sufficient intensity to give the most economical results on these furnaces.
Our roaster plant has been running at about half capacity and has given satisfactory results. Our sampling mill is handling the ore received with ease, working only one shift. Our converters were started with acid or slitea lining and proved very successful, as we had siliciuos ores of a nature favorable to the process.

Our power plant has operated without any serious trouble. We have arranged a contract with the Utah Consolidated Mining Co. to deliver power to said company beginning June 1 1911 for a period of three years.

The Toocle Valley Ry, has operated continuously throughout the year.
We added one additional locomotive and several flat cars.

As soon as ores are received to run the plant at or near capacity, it will show a substantial profit. The gases emanating from the smelting stack are blown by the prevailing winds into the Oquirrh mountain range and not into the Toocle Valley.

Pres. S. W. Fordyce, Houston, April 28, wrote in part:

It is the opinion of the board that the information submitted at its meeting on March 28 1911 presents a comprehensive and conservative view of the property. At this meeting D. S. H. Smith, Murray Carieton and A. W. Standing were appointed a committee to summarize and condense the reports above referred to, as the same are far too bulky for transmission to each stockholder. The originals are on file with Edwards Whittaker, Chairman of the executive committee, 300 N. Fourth St., St. Louis, Mo. At this meeting of the board a committee of five members was appointed for the purpose of formulating a plan, under the terms of which the preferred stockholder may expect to receive dividends earlier than is possible under existing conditions, and for the purpose of placing your company in position to control a working capital sufficient for the prompt development of those unexploited resources from which satisfactory returns may be reasonably expected. It is hoped that such a plan will be ready to submit to stockholders in the approximate future.

Otl.—Oil in commercial quantities has been found by others in the following-named fields in Louisiana: Caddo, Anse la Butte, Jennings, Welsh and more recently Vinton. The principal oil fields in Texas are Spindle Top. Sour Lake, Saratoga, Batson, Dayton, Humble and Markham. Using the Anse la Butte and the Markham as a base and the Caddo field as the apex, a triangle is formed and your land holdings (see above) are within this triangle. In Hardin County, Tex., your holdings are 191,973 acres, and in this county are the Sour Lake, Saratoga and Batson oil fields. We are operating in the Corsicana field, the net revenue therefrom amounting to about $25,000 per annum.

As vast quantities of oil have been taken from these several fields, it is reasonable to infer that there are profitable deposits of oil underlying your extensive acreage and awaiting development.

Sabine Pass Property.—This property is located on the Gulf of Mexico and Sabine Pass, where there is an excellent harbor; vessels drawing 25 feet of water can land at the docks. Your holldings are 51% of 14,757 acres. Turpentining.—At the present time, under contract with the Gilligan, Vizard Co., a considerable revenue is received from this source, which will be increased by further efforts in the future.

Other Resources.—In several of the counties of Texas in which you own property, iron ore, lignite coal, salt, sulphur and other minerals have been found. No exploitation has yet been made to ascertain whether or not deposits are in commercial quantities. There are deposits of sand and clay which will prove a valuable asset later.—V. 92, p. 529. ## J. G. White & Co. (Inc.), Engineering and Construction, New York, &c.

(Report for Fiscal Year ending Feb. 28 1911.)

President J. G. White, New York, May 24 wrote in brief:

Tresident J. G. White, New York, May 24 wrote in brief:

The surplus for the year shows an increase from $391,394 to $485,529.

The other most important changes are a decrease in deferred charges and plant and tools and equipment, less depreciation, from $331,160 to $148,903, and an increase in securities owned and syndicate participations from $1,765,816 to $2,317,959.

Nearly all of the properties in which your company is interested have shown during the past year substantial and satisfactory increases in earnings, and some of them have also increased their rates of dividends, so that the income from securities owned is gradually and substantially increasing. While in general there is not great activity in engineering and construction lines, your company has recently secured a considerable amount of new work and has fair prospects of securing considerably more work of this sort in the near future.

Columbia Gas & Electric Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

(Report for Fiscal Year ending Dec. 31 1910.)

Pres. Archibald S. White, April 1911, wrote in substance:

Pres. Archibald S. White, April 1911, wrote in substance:

Financing.—The past year was made conspicuous by the liquidation and adjustment of the floating indebtedness of the company and its subsidiaries, among other items the indebtedness of the cleveland Gas Light & Coke Co. and the People's Gas Light Co., amounting to $418,734. These Cleveland properties were sold to the East Ohio Gas Co., but under the terms of the sale we were obligated to assume and pay their indebtedness.

In the development of your gas fields in Western West Virginia and the construction of field lines connecting the gas wells with the main pipe line to Cincinnati, the company incurred a floating debt of upwards of $700,000, the greaterspart of which has now been liquidated.

The sinking fund payment provided by the mortgage securing your bonds has been made, and the Knickerbocker Trust Co., trustee, has just redeemed a total of $1,894,000 of the company's bonds.

Entre results have been achieved and the interest on your bonds, as well as all other items of expense, have been met by the earnings of the property and the sale of $2,000,000 bonds of the East Ohio Gas Co., heretofore owned.

Income from East Ohio Gas Co.—The result of the sale of your Cleveland properties to the East Ohio Gas Co. (the purchase price having been paid in securities of that company—see "Supplementary Information" below—Ed ) is gratifying. These properties earned from the sale of artificial gas in 1906, $546,043; 1907, $475,663; 1908, $385,863; 1909, $280,385.

Our proportion of the earnings of the East Ohio Gas Co. for 1910, as represented by the securities of that company owned by your company, was $585,582, or more than double the earnings of 1909.

*Natural Gas.—The operation of the pipe line and gas field department has been attended with much better results than were realized in the latter half of 1909. The quantity of natural gas delivered by us to Cincinnati and adjacent municipalities during, 1910 was as follows (in million cu. ft.):

making total sales for the twelve months 8,097,610,000 cu. ft., yielding to the company $1,021,763.

A comparison of the sales of gas during the latter half of 1910 (4,310,869,-000 cu. ft.) with sales for the same period of 1909 (1,932,534,700 cu. ft.) shows an increase of 2,378,334,300 cu. ft.

The stockholders will be gratified to know in this connection that 11,190 new gas customers were gained in Cincinnati and suburbs in 1910, an increase of over 15%, the greatest annual increase in the history of the city.

Natural gas was substituted for artificial gas in Newport, Ky., on Aug. 1 1910, and it is expected the same substitution will be made in Bellevue and Dayton, Ky., by July 1 of this year.

The Union Light, Heat & Power Co., our operating company in Covington, Newport, Bellevue, Dayton and environments in Kentucky, showed a gain of over 40% in new gas customers in 1910.

While these gains in new customers are most pleasing and must prove to be a source of increased income in the future, we note with regret that the consumption of natural gas by our old customers has been less than the average of other cities in Ohio, due to the fact that natural gas has not yet been generally accepted as a fuel in place of coal, but the increase in consumption by domestic consumers in 1910 is at least 33% more than in 1909, and therefore we have reason to expect that within a short time this consumption will average as much as in other cities in Ohio.

The Union company operates under a 99-year lease the properties and franchises of the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co., and has the exclusive gas and electric privileges in the city of Cincinnati and suburbs.

The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company (V. 83, p. 274, 892, 1231; V. 88, p. 1375) has an up-to-date electric-generating plant of 30,000 h.p. with 27,500 k.w. per hour capacity; 287 miles of underground conduits, 2,006 miles of electric wires. The company has 15,691 private consumers and lights the city with 5,956 electric street lamps.

The company has a most complete distributing system comprising 660 miles of gas mains, several gas holders with a capacity of 10,000,000 cu. ft., and supplies natural gas to 85,209 customers, and lights certain of the city and suburban streets with 4,690 gas lamps.

Kentucky Properties—Cincinnati Newport & Covington Light & Traction Co.—The public utilities, consisting of gas and electric light in Covington, Newport, Bellevue, Dayton, Latonia, Ludlow and Fort Thomas, as well as a system of electric street cars connecting these municipalities with Cincinnati, are controlled by the Columbia company under a 90-year lease. (See p. 37 of "Electric Ry. Sec." and V. 84, p. 1489, under Col. Gas & El. Co.)

For convenience in operation these properties are divided into an electric street railway department, operating under the names of the Cincinnati Newport & Covington Ry. Co. and the South Covington & Cincinnati Street Ry. Co., and a gas and electric department operating under the name of the Union Light, Heat & Power Co.

These properties embrace 66 miles of track, a power house of 5,000 h.p. centraliy located on the Licking River, supplying current for the street cardepartment and the electric light department; about 85 miles of electrical distribution lines, supplying electricity to about 5,000 consumers.

The East Ohio Gas Co.—The Columbia company formerly owned about 99% of the capital stock of the two artificial gas companies in Cleveland, known as the Ceveland Gas Light & Coke

President W. B. Pearson, May 10 1911, wrote:

In my last report I referred to building operations at Hartford, Detroit and Chicago. These improvements are now completed and a considerable lot of new machinery is installed in the new space; also much of the old machinery has been re-arranged, with the result that we are showing greater efficiency than ever in our production.

The improvement in business which we were enjoying at the close of our last fiscal year did not continue for any great length of time, and while the statement for the current year will, I believe, be considered satisfactory we cannot, without a decided change for the better, expect to make as good a showing for the ensuing year. However, when normal businesss conditions return, the large expenditures which we have made for extensions and improvements should have a very decided effect on our profits. In continuance of the policy adopted last year, we have made a substantial addition to the reserve for depreciation.

President Eugene E. Spiegelberg, New York, May 4 1911, wrote in substance:

The operations of the year resulted in a net profit of $110,056, after making the usual deductions for depreciation and betterments. Dividends of 5½% were declared on the pref. stock, leaving 20½% of accumulated dividends due the pref. stockholders. Surplus was increased by $27,557.

The slack condition of trade which has prevailed in most lines of business during the year, and the resulting unfavorable position of the steel market during the larger part of the period, had a depressing influence upon the sate of our steel-scrap p o luct and upon the prices obtained for the same. On the other hand, the price of pig tin, which likewise forms part of our output, experienced a considerable advance, beginning in July 1910, and thereby offset to some degree the recession in steel scrap. This condition still prevails.

Upon the completion of the Haines City branch, the unified mige, will be a first lien on 243.55 miles of rallway; a second lien on 1,020.98 miles, subject only to the prior lien of the consols at the rate of $12,400 per mile; a third lien on 2,622.98 miles and a fourth lien on 301.36 miles; grand total, 4,188.87 miles. The prior liens referred to are at the rate of only $20,554 per mile; the entire outstanding mige. debt of the rallroad company, including the $3,000,000 of bonds above mentioned is at the rate of only $23,200 per mile, not including in either computation 232.46 miles owned but not mortgaged. All prior mortgages are now closed. (See map of system, page 13 of "Ry. & Indus." Section.)

The unified mige, is for the authorized amount of $200,000,000 and is available for the retirement of all prior bonds and for additions and improvements, under careful restrictions. It will ultimately be a first lien on the entire 4,142.17 miles, and upon such additional mileage as may be constructed with the proceeds of bonds. The total amount of unified bonds issued and outstanding is $6,167,000, including this $3,000,000; $150,000 of the total amount is held by the Insurance fund of the raliroad, and $3,000,000 were heretofore sold to the Atlantic Coast Line Co. and deposited by it as collateral security under a long-term trust agreement.

It is pertinent to recall that in December of last year President Willard, promising retrenchments all along the line in maintenance charges, in salaries, &c., said that there were 12,000 stockholders in Germany alone who had been induced to buy the stock "on the distinct representation that the 6% dividend would be maintained," and that he felt "a moral responsibility not to disappoint them."—V. 92, p. 1498.

President Mellen explained that this was made necessary by an oversight in assuming that the Boston Holding Co. held a voting majority; it was dis-covered too late that the Holding Co. could not vote part-paid shares.

The stockholders of the Worcester Nashua & Rochester approved the sale to the Boston & Maine, $2,351,400 of the $3,099,800 outstanding stock, it is stated, being now owned by the latter.—V. 92, p. 1435, 1309.

Dayton (O.) Power & Light Co.—Merger.—This new Ohio corporation filed on May 30 a certificate increasing its authorized capital stock from $25,000 to $20,000,000, of which $6,000,000 is to be pref. and $14,000,000 common stock. A press dispatch to the "Cincinnati Enquirer" on May 31 said:

It has recently been reported that a merger of the street rallway and lighting companies of the city is under way. This would include (see Index to "El. Ry. Sec.") the City Rallway Co. (V. 92, p. 1178), the People's Rallway Co., the Oakwood Street Ry. Co., the recently organized Dayton Street Ry. Co., the Dayton Citizens' El. Co. (V. 85, p. 866) and the Dayton Lighting Co. (V. 89, p. 46). William Stroop, President of the Hills & Dales Co., is engineering the merger, the details of which are being carefully guarded. Mr. Gould is quoted as saying that probably the road will fall short only $20,000 to $30,000 of earning the full dividend, but that the directors are obliged to bear in mind that the Denver & Rio Grande stands sponsor for the interest o the Western Pacific bonds and that as yet that road is not self-sustaining and it is impossible to forecast just when it will be.—V. 92,

The new dam should add $15,000 to $20,000 to the net earns.

Property in Operation.—(1) A street railway in Escanaba and an interurban road 8 miles in length to Gladstone traversing a well-settled agricultural district which, it is believed, will eventually be built up with manufacturing industries. (2) On the Escanaba River, about three miles from Escanaba, a modern power plant developing 1,300 h. p. and furnishing electricity to the street railway system and for the lighting of Escanaba, Gladstone and Wells, and power to a large number of industries in these cities. Escanaba has about 15,000 population and Gladstone 4,500. According to the Michigan law, the company is allowed to carry freight, mail and express, and a considerable income will be derived from this source. The new dam, which will cost about $100,000, will have installed 3,000 h. p. in water wheels, which can be supplied with water 80% of the time. A syndicate of lumber men has applied for the surplus power, agreeing to pay from $12,000 to $15,000 per year for the same, to be used for grinding wood pulp (supply for 50 years). Also owns a site for a third dam.

The stockholders have invested in the last two years over $$250,000 in actual cash in this property, over and above the bonded debt.

Illinois Tunnel Co., Chicago.—Telephone System.—Joseph Harris, Pres. of the Subway Telephone Construction Co., says The actual work of installing telephones under my contract with the Illinois Tunnel Co. was begun less than one year ago, and to-day we have in operation more than 20,000 automatic telephones on more than 20,000 independent subscribers' lines, with eight exchanges, located as follows: (a) 175

Dearborn St.; (c) Plymouth Court; (d) Franklin St. and Jackson Boulevard; (e) 37th and Elmwood Ave.; (f)4170 South Halsted St.; (g) Monroe and Paulina streets; (h) La Salle and Maple streets. There have been installed in these exchanges automatic switches for 30,000 lines, or on present ratio 70,000 telephones, and in connection therewith 255 miles of cables, or 982,295 miles of wire, which are located in the tunnels and in more than 236 miles of conduit outside the tunnel district. We have already procured more than 45,000 contracts for service with bona fide subscribers, and it is the purpose to extend the automatic system to all parts of the city as rapidly as possible. Maximum annual charge for unlimited service: (a) Individual lines, $81 business; $46 80 residence. (b) party line, $36 business, $27 residence. Abstract of Letter from Pres. Milton H. Smith, Louisville, May 25 1911. The bonds in question, besides being the direct obligation of the L. & N. RR. Co., are a mortgage on its entire main line between Cincinnati and Atlanta. On 204.67 miles of this division they are a direct first mtge., and on 546.15 miles they are a mortgage subject to prior liens outstanding at the rate of only about $15,000 per mile. Of this division 35.54 miles has double track. The total mileage operated is 830.98. The mtge. also covers extensive terminal properties at Cincinnati, Ohio, Atlanta, Ga., and Knoxville, Tenn., having a large and steadily increasing value.

The amount of bonds issued for construction, equipment and the acquisition of various properties under the provisions of the mtge. is $23,827,000, of which $20,245,000, incl. those ($10,000,000) sold to you, are outstanding, and the remainder, $3,582,000, is held in the company's treasury. The amount of bonds outstanding is therefore at the rate of $24,363 per mile. Application will be made to list these bonds on the N. Y. Stock Exchange. For the fiscal year ended June 30 1910, the income of the Atlanta Knoxville & Cincinnati Division applicable to the payment of Interest charges was more than twice the amount required to pay interest on all liens prior to and including the $23,827,000 bonds of this issue.

The contemplated extensions and improvements will largely increase the earning capacity and add considerably to the surplus.

The Atlanta Knoxville & Cincinnati Division is a north-and-south line extending from Cincinnati, O., by way of Knoxville, Tenn., to Atlanta, Ga. Entrance to Cincinnati is being gained by contract with the Covington & Cincinnati Elevated RR. & Transfer & Bridge Co., as well as by the bridge at Newport owned by the L. & N. RR. and embraced in the property covered by the mtge. To Atlanta access is had by trackage rights over the Western & Atlantic RR. From Cartersville, a distance of about 48 miles. The main line is the ling of traffic from the coal fields above referred to and from those of south-west Virginia.

The Louisville & Nashville RR. Co. has since July 1909 paid dividends at the rate of 7% per annum. It owns 3,769.82 miles of road, of which it operates 3,495.06, other companies operating the remainder of 274.76 miles. Its bonded debt per mile decreased from $33,815 on June 30 1910, during which period its stock per mile decreased from $13,439 to $12,373. During the same period its gross earnings increased from $43,000,000 to $52,000,000, or from $10,411 to $11,513 per mile, and its net earnings from $12,075,000 to $17,448,000, or from $2,923 to $3,831 per mile.

The bonds were offered on Monday, and by Tuesday afternoon had all been sold. The advertisement, however, appears on another page for record.

Co. and Sebasticook & Moosehead RR.; also on leasing to the Portland Terminal Co. Metropolitan Street Ry of Kansas City, Mo. and Kan.—

Metropolitan Street Ry. of Kansas City, Mo. and Kan.—
Receivership.—Judge W. C. Hook, in the Federal Court at Kansas City on June 3, upon application made by the Kansas City Ry. & Light Co., the owner of the capital stock, also of various debts of the road aggregating $2,978,744, appointed as receiver for the street railway R. J. Dunham of Chicago, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Kansas City Ry. & Light Co., and Ford F. Harvey of Kansas City. A general readjustment of the affairs of the street railway system, it is stated, has become imperative.

Stated, has become imperative.

Formal Statement Made by R. J. Dunham, Chairman of K. C. Ry. & Lt. Co.

The street rallway franchises expire in 1925. Over $18,000,000 of obligations to creditors mature in Sept. 1912 and May 1913. At that time these obligations must be met or refunded. The annual gross street rallway earnings are in excess of $6,000,000. These, if the property be kept together, ought to be ample to meet expenses, maintenance and interest, as well as to accumulate a surplus for these creditors.

The growth of Kansas City has been phenomenal, both in population and territorial limits, thus requiring much additional service and many new lines, improvements and additions. Creditors having debts which mature within a year or two are not willing that the earnings should be used for this purpose instead of being applied upon the indebtedness. The improvements, if made, would fall under the lien of present mortgages. Investors will not lend new money therefor unless they can have a first lien upon that which their money creates. To obtain it requires some kind of a new contract with the city.

More than $13,000,000 of the bonds were issued prior to the peace agreement of 1902, under franchises expiring in 1925, and are secured by mortgages upon different lines in the downtown districts and heart of the city. The holders of these bonds claim they are not bound by the provisions of the ordinances as to transfers, extensions or payment of 8% of gross earnings. In order to keep the property together, a receivership became inevitable. It is hoped that the Court will be able soon to return the property to the stockholders; in the meantime efforts will be made to adjust all differences between bondholders and refund all obligations, even under the short remaining franchise period. It is possible that out of the situation some arrangement may be made with the city whereby there can at an early date be obtained the new money for all necessary improvements and additions.

The proceedings in no way affect the Kans

due May 1 1913, a circular saying in substance:

The receivership, we are informed, is largely the result of an unfortunate political situation which has made it impossible for the company to reach a reasonable basis with the city to enable the company to raise funds for its floating debt and for the extensions and improvements demanded by the City officials. We feel that the property can and will be opertaed under the receivership, and reorganized at the termination thereof, without real detriment to the bondholders.

For the 10 mos. ending March 31 1911 the company reports an increase in gross earnings of $250,220, or 5.3%, over the same 10 months of the previous year, and a surplus over interest charges of $341,172. This result was after heavy charges to operating expenses for maintenance, exceeding by $207,653 the maintenance charges for the same period of 1909-10.

An independent report, made in 1909 to the Mayor of Kansas City, Mo., by Arthur Young & Co. of Chicago, showed the total cost of the properties of the Metropolitan St. Ry. Co. at that date to be about $33,000,000, which has since been considerably increased by further construction and equipment. Against these properties the mortgage debt is only $21,849,000.

Statement by Pres. Z. A. Johnson. Nezperce, Idaho, July 1 1910.

The company operates about 15 miles of standard gauge steam railroad extending from Vollmer, on the Grangeville branch of the Northern Pacific Ry., easterly to Nezperce, in western Idaho. Completed and placed in operation June 15 1910; constructed to accommodate the heavy rolling-stock of the Northern Pacific Ry. The territory directly served includes about 90,000 acres of excellent grain and agricultural lands heretofore entirely without transportation facilities. With the new railroad facilities the land may now be planted to vegetables and fruit. The organization and construction of the railroad originated with the residents and property-owners within this territory. Satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Northern Pacific Ry. Co. for exchange of freight.

**Additional bonds (up to the total of $300,000) may be issued for additions and extensions at 70% of the cost thereof (based upon vouchers and estimates), but only when the net earnings for the preceding six months are twice the interest charges, incl. bonds then proposed to be issued. The company has the right to redeem the bonds in blocks of $5,000 or multiples thereof in order of earliest maturities, upon any interest day, at 105 & int.

[The actual earnings from June 22 to Dec. 31 1910, about 64 months, were: Gross, $21,646; net (after taxes), $11,629; int. charges, $3,937; bal., surplus, $7,691. Cap. stock auth., $500,000; issued, $100,400.—Ed.]

Northern Central Ry.—Lease when Delivered to Be Effective

Northern Central Ry.—Lease when Delivered to Be Effective as of Jan. 1.—President McCrea has written Joseph Moore Jr., Chairman of the stockholders' minority committee, in reply to a letter of the latter, assuring him that, were it not for the pending suits in the Federal Courts, the lease to the Pennsylvania RR. agreed upon by both companies would have been delivered and accepted at once, after the approval thereof by the Public Service Commission of Maryland.

Mr. McCrea says that in view of the definite provisions of the lease, positively defining the term thereof as commencing on Jan. 1 1911 and expressly stipulating that the rent shall accrue and be computed from that date, it is the understanding and intention of the lessee that when the premises shall have been acquired by the lessee all the terms and provisions thereof will necessarily become and be treated as effective as of Jan. 1 1911, and that a just and equitable accounting between the lessor and lessee shall then be made in such manner as will properly protect and preserve the rights of each party to the lease.—V. 92, p. 1243, 1179.

Orange County Traction Co., Newburgh, N. Y.—Application to Issue Bonds.—The company has applied to the Public Service Commission, Second District, for permission to issue $83,500 5% 50-year first and refunding M. bonds to be sold at not less than 85.

The proceeds are to be used for a new car barn, second track from West St. and Broadway, Newburgh, to Orange Lake, payment on Orange Lake property and a new rotary switchboard and fittings. A hearing will take place June 13, Compare V. 90, p. 1425.

Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Co.—Allotment.—Subscribers to the $12,500,000 of the $25,000,000 offering of "first and refunding" M. guaranteed 4% bonds reserved for New York received, it is stated, allotments averaging about 10% of their subscriptions. Compare V 92 p. 1500, 1437 V. 92, p. 1500, 1437.

Parkersburg (W. Va.) & Ohio Valley Electric Ry.—Receiver's Certificates.—Judge Dayton in the Federal Court at Sistersville, W. Va., on May 26 authorized receiver C. L. Williams to issue $30,000 receiver's certificates to complete the road between Sistersville and Friendly, and pay off received interest on the first mortgage bands. accrued interest on the first mortgage bonds.

It is estimated that it will take about $9,000 to complete the line and place it in operation within the next 6 months. Compare V. 92, p. 1375.

Pensacola Mobile & New Orleans Ry .- Mortgage .- The company has filed a mortgage to the Knickerbocker Trust Co., as trustee, to secure an issue of $750,000 20-year $1,000 5% 1st M. bonds, dated May 1 1911.

The company was incorporated in Alabama in May 1907 with $10,000 (nominal) capital stock, and proposes to build from Pensacola, Fla., to Mobile, Ala., 60 miles, part of the road being reported as under construction. Pres., Elwood M. Laughlin; Sec., J.B. Hall.

Philadelphia (Pa.) Rapid Transit Co.—Mr. Stotesbury in Control of Management—Official Statement.—At a meeting of the directors held June 5 1911, E. T. Stotesbury, of Drexel & Co., Philadelphia, was, in accordance with the arrangement heretofore announced, made Chairman of the Board and placed in direct charge and control of the policy and management of the company's affairs.

Extracts from Official Statement Issued June 6.

Extracts from Official Statement Issued June 6.

The other new members of the board who directly represent Mr. Stotesbury and who have been selected by him to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of John B. Parsons, P. A. B. Widener, Geo. D. Widener, C. O. Kruger, and of August B. Loeb, who resigned some time ago, are as follows: C. E. Ingersoil, C. S. W. Packard, H. G. Lloyd and T. E. Mitten. The new executive committee includes Messrs. Stotesbury, Ingersoil, Packard, Lloyd and Mitten (V. 92, p. 660, 1500; V. 91, p. 1161, 946).

Mr. Stotesbury's associates are in full accord with his expressed intention to rehabilitate the property and improve its operating methods, to the end of developing the best street-car service which it is within the financial ability of the company to produce, and which, he is assured by Mr. Mitten, can within the next 5 years equal that enjoyed by anyother American city. The new capital represented by the $10,000,000 bond issue now authorized is a small amount with which to attempt to accomplish such a material change in conditions, and it can only by the exercise of the utmost care be made sufficient to complete the rehabilitation of the present property (V. 92, p. 463; V. 91, p. 1711, 1630).

To insure the proper maintenance and renewal of the property an amount equaling 15% of the gross earnings will be used for that purpose. It is estimated that the expenses of the company, including the aforementioned maintenance and renewals, will be approximately $1,500,000 in excess of its earnings during the three years ensuing, to meet which deficit the company now has salable securities remaining from the old fire insurance fund; the securities, when sold, will produce approximately this sum. The remaining two years of the 5-year period, it is thought, will result in a small earned surplus which should continue to grow larger each year thereafter (V. 92, p. 1033, 596; V. 91, p. 789).

Mr. Mitten's estimate is not based upon a reduced cost of operation, as all of the economies effected will be offset by the larger number of seats necessary to be supplied to the public during the rush hours and the increased wage of ½ cent per hour, approximating $100,000 per annum, which the company is now under published promise to give to its motormen and conductors on July 1 of each year. The published notice of April 5 1910 provides for a maximum wage of 23c. per hour for the year beginning July 1 1910, and 23 ½c., 24c., 24½c. and 25c., respectively, for the four years next following.

In the hope of adding at least 200 new cars against the maximum demand of coming winter, efforts are now being made to purchase a temporary supply of power; the company's Delaware Ave. power-house will meanwhile be rapidly pushed to completion.

Re-routing of car lines will be given careful consideration, and the report of Ford, Bacon & Davis will, no doubt, be of great assistance (V. 92, p. 1500)

Mr. Stotesbury has assumed this gigantic task solely in the hope that the result of his efforts may be of lasting benefit to the city of Philadelphia. To the stockholders of the company he can only promise the building up of their property to the end that it may be a credit to its owners and productive of return upon the $30,000,000 of capital actually paid in. There can be no hope of dividend upon this stock, however, until good service to the public has become an established fact and the wages of the motormen and conductors placed upon a satisfactory basis.—V. 92, p. 1500.

Portland (Me.) Terminal Co.—New Name, &c.—At the recent session of the Maine Legislature a bill was passed recent session of the Maine Legislature a bill was passed providing for the enlargement of the powers of the Portland Union Ry. Station Co. and changing its name to the Portland Terminal Co. The old station company issued in 1887-89 $300,000 1st M. 4s, due 1927-29, guaranteed jointly by the Boston & Maine and Maine Central RRs. An officer of the last-named company on May 5 wrote:

Details of the organization of the new company have not as yet been completed, but I can state in a general way that plans are being considered for the improvement of the passenger, as well as the freight, terminals in Portland, which if carried through, will add greatly to the facilities enjoyed by the public in and around Portland. The projected improvements nelude the possible enla regement of shops, the construction of a new low-grade double-track line for six or eight miles east of Portland, and the complete transformation of the Portland Union Passenger Station.

New York Telephone Co.—New Rates in Greater New York.

—The new interborough rates which the Public Service Comm., 2d Dist., has ordered, effective Aug. 1 are as follows:

2d Dist., has ordered, effective Aug. 1 are as follows:

(a) Borough of Manhattan below 110th St. to the Borough of Brooklyn (except Coney Island and Bath Beach), and from the Borough of Manhattan below 110th St. to the central-station districts of Astoria and Newtown on Long Island, (from 10c.) to 5c. a call. (b) Manhattan below 110th St. to the central-station districts of Flushing, Richmond Hill and Jamalea on Long Island (from 15) to 10c.

The Commission finds: (a) That the company has 400,000 telephone stations used by subscribers in N. Y. City, and that in the year ended Nov. 1 1910 a total of 30,132,330 toll messages were transmitted, for which the gross earnings were $3,114,345. (b) That the new rates will mean a reduction in revenue of $1,216,189 on the basis of the 1910 business, but that the increase in business will probably restore the net earnings to the 1910 figure in a very short time. (c) From the financial statement furnished by the company its total investment in N. Y. City is $110,582,897 (including intangibles, $30,000,000) and that the net earnings from said property is $10,757,000. Friday Night, June 9 1911.

There is evidence that the undertone of American business is more confident, but for all that conservatism is still the dominant note. Yet many feel that the way is being gradually cleared for a return to better times. Crop prospects are still good and money is easy.

COFFEE on the spot has been quiet but firm; Rio No. 7, 123/sc.; Santos No. 4, 12 1/8@13c. Futures, though quiet, have been firmer in response to some advance in Europe, apparently due to manipulation and complaints of cold rains in Brazil. Closing prices were as follows:

SUGAR.—Raw has advanced on higher cables and a better demand for Cuba and Porto Rico for early shipment. Centrifugal, 96-degrees test, 3.89c.; muscovado, 89-degrees test, 3.39c.; molasses, 89-degrees test, 3.14c. Refined quiet; granulated 5c. Teas quiet and steady, with foreign markets firm. TOBACCO.—Trade continues without particular change or other feature of interest. Cigar manufacturers feel the effect of slack trade conditions and are interested only in the matter of supplying immediate requirements. Desirable binder is in but moderate supply with buyers, however, dis-, posed to hold off for lower prices. Trade in Sumatra tobacco is dull. Although the quality is admittedly fine, the price is by many considered too high. American manufacturers, who were good buyers at the recent inscription sale in Amsterdam, have apparently supplied their present needs and show little interest in raw material at the moment.

COPPER firm at 121/2c. for lake and 123/8c. for electrolytic; standard 12.05c., foreign holders firmer. London prices have been the highest of the year. Increased sales are reported in this country. Speculation in cotton for future delivery has latterly been more active at higher prices, mainly owing to dry, hot weather, particularly at the Southwest. Maximum temperatures have been recorded there of 108 in Oklahoma, 104 in Texas, 102 in Arkansas, Alabama, Louisiana and Georgia and 101 in Mississippi. Complaints at one time were received of drought of some weeks' standing in the Carolinas but letterly these States have had raine which have were received of drought of some weeks' standing in the Carolinas, but latterly those States have had rains which have, at least partially, broken the drought. Rain is said to be needed in the Southwest as well as elsewhere to promote germination, although the plant already up is not believed to have been injured much, if at all, by the period of dry weather. Indeed in some sections the high temperatures are believed to have been beneficial rather than harmful after the cold May. Also the spot markets at the South have been quiet, so much so that many believe this fact neutralizes the statistical position, which, superficially at least, is regarded as strong. There is evidently no diminution of curtailment of production. At the North it is believed to amount to at least 25%. Liverpool spot sales, too, have continued small. Some of the leading bulls in the old-crop months have to all appearance been selling them freely continued small. Some of the leading bulls in the old-crop months have to all appearance been selling them freely during the past week, especially July. For some weeks past, in fact, the indications have seemed to point very plainly to persistent liquidation of these months, apparently, in part at least, for the account of prominent bull operators here. Of late, too, New Orleans has evidently been selling July with a free hand. It would also appear that New Orleans operators have sold the new-crop months to some extent on the rains which have occurred of late in the Carolines, Georgia, Mississippi and Florida. But the common understanding is that the leading bulls here, if they have been selling the old-crop months, have been buying October and January on a large scale. The new-crop months have attracted attention from the fact that the discounts on them seem to many pretty large, and from the discounts on them seem to many pretty large, and from the scarcity of sellers aside from operators on the short side of the market. Buyers of those months have also adduced the recent complaints of drought in the Carolinas, as evidenced by the last two weekly Government weather reports and the continued dry, hot conditions in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, where there are no signs of the dry spell being broken. The South has not been inclined, as a rule, to sell the newc-rop months against the coming crop at the current discounts of 15% to 21/4c, while at the same time spinners for several months past have been quietly buying those months. It is contended that there is still a large short interest in the new-crop deliveries and that while the South is indisposed to sell, the spinners, who have been the principal buyers during the last few months, will not be apt to sell until they can get the actual cotton in the fall. It is in such circumstances that prominent operators who have won considerable prestige by their success on the bull side of the old.crop months are now it is understood, buying October and January. Weather conditions are subject to keen scrutiny, the more so that a large crop is believed to be much needed. Many of the crop advices are decidedly favorable and it is contended by some close students of cotton conditions that on the face of things the indications point to the largest crop on record, as the acreage is also the largest ever known. To-day prices advanced, owing to prevalence of dry, hot weather over much of the belt and the official forecast pointing to a continuation of these conditions. Also prominent operators were large buyers of December and January. Spot cotton has advanced to 15.90c. for middling uplands

BREADSTUFFS.

Friday Night, June 9, 1911.

Flour has shown little change in price, but has been steady, although trade has been quiet or only moderately active at best. At Minneapolis business has as a rule been dull, both for the home trade and export. First clears, however, have been in good domestic demand there and firm. At Kansas City the sales have been small. At St. Louis there is a better inquiry for new-crop wheat flour, but bids are unsatisfactory. Other descriptions are in more demand. Taking the country over, however, the flour trade is not in satisfactory shape, though the tone is beginning to be more honeful hopeful.

Wheat advanced on bullish manipulation, complaints of Wheat advanced on bullish manipulation, complaints of 102 in Texas, 100 to 102 dry, hot weather in the Southwest—104 in Texas, 100 to 102 in Nebraska and 102 to 108 in Oklahoma—more or less unfavorable crop reports from Russia and Hungary and covering of shorts. The Minneapolis stock has been slowly decreasing. The Government report put the condition of winter wheat on June 1 at 80.4, against 86.1 on May 1 and 80 last year. On the other hand, the spring-wheat condition is 94.6, against 92.8 last year, and the total acreage is the largest on record. The world's visible supply increased 3,134,000 bushels, against a decrease of 5,614,000 in the previous week and a decrease of 2,468,000 last year. Also the American visible gained 927,000 bushels, against 1,014,-

000 in the previous week and a loss last year of 1,486,000. Then, too, the world's shipments were heavy—that is, 16,584,000 bushels, against 13,440,000 in the previous week and 9,184,000 last year. Crop reports from Argentina and Roumania have been rather more favorable. There is a growing belief that the reciprocity bill will pass the United States Senate. Also many, while puzzled in some respects by the Government report, regard it as favorable, owing to the enormous acreage. It points to the unprecedented total crop of 764,286,000 bushels, against 695,443,000 last year, 737,189,000 in 1909, 664,602,000 in 1908, 634,087,000 in 1907, 735,260,970 in 1906 and 692,979,489 in 1905. Latterly prices have receded somewhat, owing to more favorable crop reports. The total acreage is 52,124,000 acres, against 49,205,000 last year, which was the largest on record at that time. In 1909 it was 46,723,000 and in 1908 47,557,000. To-day prices declined, owing to the bearish construction put upon the Government report. Yet smaller world's shipments were predicted and it was still very hot at the West.

Indian corn has advanced, owing mainly to dry, hot weather in the Southwest and a certain sympathy with the rise in wheat. Rain is needed. Yet many of the crop reports have been favorable and the world's shipments were heavy, being 5,528,000 bushels, against 2,255,000 in the previous week and 2,454,000 last year. The amount on passage increased 1,190,000 bushels. The country offerings at times have been large and also the interior receipts. It is passage increased 1,190,000 bushels. The country offerings at times have been large, and also the interior receipts. It is largely a weather market, however, and the high temperatures and dry conditions have caused considerable buying for a rise, though it is too early to attach very serious importance to such news. Cash prices on Wednesday were lower, with the demand light. Storage room at Chicago is reported to be getting scarce and there are nearly 5,000,000 bushels of grain on the track there. Premiums have fallen there within ten days 1 to 2 cents. The visible supply increased 1,831,000 bushels, against a decrease of 245,000 in the previous week and an increase of only 112,000 last year. To-day prices declined and then became firmer, owing to continued high temperatures at the West, covering of shorts and good buying temperatures at the West, covering of shorts and good buying by commission houses.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

New York, Friday Night, June 9 1911.

Textile markets were comparatively quiet this week, trading generally being of a hand-to-mouth character. In the primary cotton goods division converters and the manufacturing trades, having apparently provided for urgent needs, showed little disposition to make additional commitments. Jobbers in various sections continued to place moderate orders for prints and a few other staple domestic cottons for deliveries within the next few weeks, but have not, as a rule, begun to operate freely for the fall season. Sentiment among jobbers and merchants is by no means pessimistic; on the contrary, they consider underlying conditions sound and express confidence in the future, but prefer to await a somewhat clearer outlook for trade before placing contracts for distant deliveries. Owing to the same influences previously noted namely, the sustained strength of raw material, curtailment of production, limited stocks and confident expectation among sellers that business will increase in volume before long, prices of cotton goods in both primary and secondary markets were firmly held, especially on contracts. Some lines for the new spring season are being shown, and there is increasing evidence of unwillingness on the part of mills to make any downward revisions; this applies not only to cotton goods, but to woolens and worsteds and other lines, and it is plain that mills are as determined as ever to curtail production rather than accept business at a loss. Toward the week-end small, scattered sales of wide print cloths were reported at slight concessions below the general market level, but no sizable lots were available at the lower prices and many leading mills refused to sell at such figures. Cotton yarns continued dull, with prices firm for forward delivery, but more or less irregular on stock yarns. and worsted dress goods and men's wear showed little activity.

WOOLEN GOODS.—Trade in the primary dress goods market was seasonably quiet outside of an active demand for certain specialties which are in limited supply. Fancy woolens were taken in small lots by garment makers, and to some extent by jobbers. The call for worsted-warp to some extent by jobbers. The call for worsted-warp broadcloths improved slightly, but worsteds generally, with the exception of serges, moved more slowly than woolens.

Men's wear lines displayed little activity; in this division, as well as in dress goods, the tariff agitation is held largely responsible for the hesitancy among buyers.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—Exports of cotton goods from this port for week ending June 3 were 8,992 packages.

Domestic cottons were in steady request but business in the aggregate was only moderate. Bleached goods continued to be taken by the manufacturing trades and jobbers, usually in small lots for near-by requirements. Drills and sheetings held steady, with transactions light. Staple prints for fall were ordered more freely by jobbers than other lines, and printers in some instances are firmer and less willing to and printers in some instances are infiner and less willing to give extended discounts. Demand for brown cottons was limited and principally to meet needs within the next few weeks. Duck continued firm and fairly active. Tickings, denims and coarse, colored cottons for working shirts and suits moved in small qpantities and ruled steadier; produc-tion of colored goods, it is said, is being restricted to orders booked, while denim mills contemplate curtailment through summer months. Some lines of dress ginghams were opened for the spring season and a fair amount of business was reported placed. Aside from a few sales of sheetings to China, export trade remained quiet. Demand for print cloths and convertibles was light and scattered; gray goods, 38½-inch standard, are quoted a shade easier at 5 1-16c. to 5½c., but the market generally ruled firm on contracts. 1911 FOREIGN DRY GOODS.—High-grade lines of English men's wear fabrics have been priced for spring, 1912, at the same level that prevailed a year ago, and importers have booked a moderate amount of business; they are not aggressively competing for American orders, since, according to local representatives, the leading British manufacturers are well sold ahead for home consumption. Dress linens were moderately active, demand coming chiefly from the cuttingup trades, with some orders from retailers and secondary distributers. Colored dress linens again figured prominently in purchases by garment makers. Housekeeping linens were relatively quiet, but more interest was shown in goods for distant deliveries, some contracts being reported placed for shipment twelve months hence. Burlaps were dull and unchanged.

MUNICIPAL BOND SALES IN MAY.

Conditions in the municipal bond market in May were exactly the reverse of those prevailing the same month last year. In May 1910, it will be recalled, more than twelve million dollars worth of bonds were offered without success and very low prices were obtained for those issues which were disposed of. During the month just closed the new loans disposed of reached a total of $33,490,004, which, with the exception of May 1904, when the output included $37,000,000 bonds of New York City, is the largest ever reported for May. Very few offerings were unsuccessful and over 500 new issues were sold, of which the following are the largest and most important: $7,000,000 4s of New Orleans, $2,006,000 of Seattle, $1,400,000 4s of Chicago, $1,030,000 4s of Baltimore, $950,000 4s of Cook County, Ill., $625,000 41/2s of San Francisco, $500,000 4s of Schuylkill County, Pa., $475,000 41/2s of Pasadena High School District, Cal., $450,-000 41/2s of Milwaukee, $400,000 4s of New Bedford, Mass., $395,000 41/2s of Wilmington, Del., $430,000 5s of Asheville, No. Car., and $310,000 4s of Indianapolis.

There were also put out in May, in addition to the $33,490,-004 permanent loans referred to above, $12,591,697 temporary obligations and $5,810,782 Canadian debentures. In the following we furnish a comparison of all the various forms of obligations put out in May of the last five years:

1911. 1910. 1909. Permanent loans (U. S.) 33,490,004 18,767,754 27,597,869 25,280,431 15,722,336 Temporary loans (U. S.) 12,591,697 36,211,785 8,081,827 42,659,690 304,200 Canadian loans (perm't) 5,810,782 28,856,569 8,587,440 1,885,541 8,485,111 Bonds of U. S. Posses'ns 1,000,000

Total.....51,892,483 83,836,108 45,267,136 69,825,662 24,511,647 The number of municipalities emitting permanent bonds and the number of separate issues made during May 1911 were 367 and 506, respectively. This contrasts with 356 and 304 for April 1911 and with 245 and 339 for May 1910.

For comparative purposes we add the following table, showing the aggregates of long-term issues for May and the five months for a series of years:

Owing to the crowded condition of our columns, we are obliged to omit this week the customary table showing the month's bond sales in detail. It will be given later.

Sub-Committee of U. S. Senate Named to Probe Lorimer Charges.—The Committee of Privileges and Elections of the U. S. Senate on June 5 appointed a sub-committee of eight.

The naming of the sub-committee was approved by the Senate on June 7.

Commission Form of Government Law Upheld.—Judge Jas. A. Creighton in the Sangamon Circuit Court on June 5 decided that the commission form of government bill under which a number of Illinois cities are being governed is valid and not in violation of the Constitution. The decision was rendered in a mandamus suit brought by the commissioners to compel the County Treasurer, C. H. Edmands to turn over to Wm. H. Bowe, who was named city Treasurer by the commissioners, the city's funds in his possession. It is expected that the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court. expected that the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Power Plant Bonds Declared Valid by Supreme Court.—The State Supreme Court in a decision handed down May 31 sustains the judgment of the Superior Court upholding the validity of the $3,500,000 municipal-power-plant bonds voted in April 1910. See V. 91, p. 1047. Percy H. Clark, who brought the suit, contended, it is stated, that the city had no power to engage in the enterprise projected, but the Supreme Court held this untenable, as an amendment to the Los Angeles charter in 1909 gave the power and the right to secure lands, water rights, machinery and all else needed. It was also contended that the bonds would give Los Angeles an indebtedness beyond the fixed limit, but this was likewise overruled, the Court decided, by a special amendment to the charter, making provision for public utilities.

Mobile, Ala.—Commission Form of Government Approved.— The election held June 5 (V. 92, p. 1327) resulted in favor of government under the commission plan. The vote, according to local papers, was 2,221 to 1,392.

Mountain Home, Elmore County, Idaho.—Bonds Declared -The State Supreme Court in an opinion handed down May 31 in the suit brought by C. E. Corker (V. 92, p. 1511) upholds the legality of the $35,000 6% coupon water bonds awarded in April to W. E. Sweet & Co. of Denver.

New York City.—Comptroller Authorized to Issue Short-Time Notes in Anticipation of Sale of Corporate Stock.—Under a bill passed by the Legislature, approved several weeks ago by Mayor Gaynor and signed on June 1 by the Governor, the City Comptroller is authorized to issue short-term notes to provide funds pending the sale of corporate stock. plaining the new law, Comptroller Prendergast says:

plaining the new law, Comptroller Prendergast says:

Under the old law many millions of dollars in awards for land taken by the city for various purposes carried interest at 6% against the city. There is pending fully $10,000,000 in awards, drawing interest at the rate of $600,000 a year. Under the old law these payments could be settled only out of the proceeds of corporate stock and would have to await the next bond sale. Under the new law, which enables the Comptroller to borrow money against the proceeds of the next bond sale, the money to settle all such claims can be obtained at the rate of 3½% or less. If a sale should take place next spring, the saving to the city on this account would be not less than $200,000.

The new law will also make it unnecessary to carry in the banks of the city the large amounts proceeding from the sale of corporate stock, pending the time of actual disbursement. After a bond sale of $50,000,000, an average balance of at least one-half that amount has been carried in the banks for a period of about a year. The city pays 4½% on this money and receives only 2% in return from the banks. On this side of the account I expect the city will save at least $500,000 a year, as against the old method. The bill in full is given below:

The bill in full is given below:

Sec. 1. The Greater New York charter, as re-enacted by Chap. 466 of the laws of 1901, is hereby amended by adding thereto, after Sec. 188 thereof, a new section, to be known as Sec. 189, to read as follows:

NOTES TO BE ISSUED IN ANTICIPATION OF SALE OF CORPORATE STOCK.

Sec. 189. The Comptroller is authorized to issue, whenever he may deem it for the best interests of the city so to do, bills or notes, hereinafter described as "notes," maturing within a period not to exceed one year, in anticipation of the sale of corporate stock duly authorized at the time such notes are issued. The proceeds of the sale of such notes shall be used only for the purposes for which may be used the proceeds of the sale of corporate stock in anticipation of the sale whereof the notes were issued. All of such notes and any renewals thereof shall be payable at a fixed time, and no renewal of any such note shall be issued after the sale of corporate stock in anticipation of which the original note was issued. In the event that a sale of such corporate stock shall not have occurred prior to the maturity of the notes so issued in anticipation of such sale, the Comptroller shall, in order to meet the notes then maturing, issue renewal notes for such purpose. Every such note and renewal note shall be payable from the proceeds of the next succeeding sale of corporate stock. The total amount of such notes or renewals thereof issued and outstanding shall at no time exceed one-half of the total amount of corporate stock authorized to be issued; and if no sale of corporate stock shall have been held within six months pre-ding the issue of such notes, then the total amount of such notes or renewals thereof, issued and outstanding, shall at no time exceed one-half the total amount of corporate stock authorized to be issued on the date which shall be six months after such last preceding sale.

Sec. 2. This Act shall take effect immediately.

Norwich, New London County, Conn.—Commission Plan Defeated.—By a vote of 1,232 to 845 the electors of this city on June 5 defeated a proposition to adopt the commission form of government. It is said that this is the first city in the State where the new plan has been offered to the people. The Legislature sanctioned the proposition, subject to the approval of the voters.

Ohio.—Legislator Pleads Guilty to Charge of Bribery.—Representative Owen J. Evans, Democrat, of Stark County, on June 5 pleaded guilty before Judge Kinkead of the Criminal Court to an indictment handed down by the Franklin County Grand Jury on the same day, charging him with receiving a bribe of $100 from L. C. Miller, an Akron loan agent, to prevent Senator Haas's salary loan bill from coming to a vote in the House. Mr. Evans was fined $500 by the Court and was then taken before the Grand Jury, having promised to tell what he knows concerning legislative corruption. There are still two indictments pending against Representative Evans, one returned May 3 (V. 92, p. 1386), charging him with soliciting a bribe of $650 for his vote on a liquor bill and another returned June 5, together with the one to which he confessed, charging that he solicited a bribe of $400 from J. C. Sharrer of Alliance for his influence on Senator Haas's loan agent measure. loan agent measure.

Governor Signs Smith Tax Bill.—The Governor on June 2 signed the Smith one per cent tax bill. The law, it is said, provides that the levy for any governmental unit, such as the city, the schools or the like, shall not be more than the levy of 1910. It also provides that the total levy shall not be more than 1% of the tax duplicate. The operation of the new law will result, it is predicted by various city officials throughout the State, in a loss of needed revenue for public work and pay-rolls.

Portland, Ore.—Charter Commission Named.—The Mayor on June 1 appointed a commission of fifteen members to draft a new city charter, providing for the commission form of government, for submission to the voters. A proposition to adopt this form of government was defeated by the voters on June 7 1909. V. 88, p. 1570.

Republic of Nicaragua.—Treaty with U. S. Signed.—On June 6 a treaty between the United States and the Republic June 6 a treaty between the United States and the Republic of Nicaragua for refunding the public debt of the latter was signed by Secretary of State Knox and Dr. Salvadore Castrillo, the Minister from Nicaragua, It is stated that this treaty is practically the same as the Honduras agreement, the only difference being that the loan in the case of Honduras was privately arranged with a syndicate of New York bankers, while the Nicaraguan bond issue will be upon a competitive basis and will be sold to the highest bidder. The treaty with Honduras (V. 92, p. 477) has been pending for some weeks in the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate, and a final effort will now be made, it is said, to have both treaties ratified by that body.

Yesterday (June 9) a report recommending the ratification of the Honduras treaty was decided upon by the Foreign Relations Committee, according to newspaper dispatches.

Wisconsin.—State Senate Votes to Unseat U. S. Senator

Wisconsin.—State Senate Votes to Unseat U. S. Senator Stephenson.—By a vote of 18 to 3 the State Senate on June 7 adopted a resolution declaring that the election of Isaac Stephenson as U. S. Senator from Wisconsin was accomplished by bribery and that such election should be annulled by the U. S. Senate.
